

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 23, 2005

TO: Honorable Mary Denny, Chair, House Committee on Elections

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2199 by Madden (Relating to the salaries of a county elections administrator and the administrator's employees.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would repeal the requirement that a county elections administrator may not be paid more than the county clerk and that the elections administrator's employees may not be paid more than the county clerk's employees in comparable positions. The bill would take effect immediately if it receives the required two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, it would take effect September 1, 2005.

Local Government Impact

The bill would provide flexibility to a county to establish its own pay structure for an elections administrator and their staff.

No significant fiscal implication on units of local government is anticipated.
