

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 2, 2005

TO: Honorable Kenneth Armbrister, Chair, Senate Committee on Natural Resources

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2555 by Kuempel (Relating to the humane dispatch of certain game animals and game birds.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 61 of the Parks and Wildlife Code relating to a defense to prosecution for humane dispatching of certain game animals and game birds. A person may humanely dispatch (meaning to kill by a humane method) a game animal or game bird that is mortally wounded, not through the person's conduct; or behaves in a manner that a diseased game animal or bird would typically behave, and leads a reasonable person to believe that the game animal or bird poses a substantial risk of serious harm to itself, a person, or wildlife. The bill would authorize the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission to adopt rules administering the new provisions; however, any new administrative costs would be minimal and the bill is not anticipated to have a significant fiscal implication to the State.

The bill would take immediate effect if the bill receives two-thirds vote from both houses; otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2005.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
