

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 13, 2005

TO: Honorable David Swinford, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3245 by Homer (Relating to allowing a governmental body to discuss matters regarding computer security in a closed meeting.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would permit a governmental body to meet in executive session to deliberate on matters relating to computer security or the security of other information resource technologies. The bill would take effect immediately upon receiving a two-thirds majority vote in both houses; otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2005.

It is anticipated that any legal work resulting from the passage of this bill could be reasonably absorbed with current resources at the Office of the Attorney General.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
