

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 11, 2005

TO: Honorable Joe Driver, Chair, House Committee on Law Enforcement

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB689 by Zaffirini (Relating to a feasibility study regarding the creation of a federal criminal history record clearinghouse at the Department of Public Safety of the State of Texas.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require the Department of Public Safety (DPS) to conduct a feasibility study regarding the creation of a federal criminal history record clearinghouse. DPS would be required to seek input from persons interested in accessing the information and report to the Legislature on or before September 1, 2006. The bill would require the feasibility study to determine the manner in which material contained in the clearinghouse may be categorized and released, estimate the cost of providing clearinghouse services, and identify barriers to implementation of the clearinghouse and possible solutions.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2005 and expire September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
