Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 10, 2005

TO: Honorable Rodney Ellis, Chair, Senate Committee on Government Organization

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1139 by Eltife (Relating to monitoring by the Texas Building and Procurement Commission and the Legislative Budget Board of the transfer of surplus or salvage property by state agencies.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code and require the Texas Building and Procurement Commission to ensure that transfers of surplus property by state agencies are conducted ethically and legally and are to the best economic interest of the state. It is assumed that any additional duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be absorbed within existing appropriations.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2005.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
