

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 11, 2005

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1552 by Estes (Relating to the continuation of criminal offenses involving the interception of certain communications for law enforcement purposes.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code by repealing the language specifying the expiration date of the section which addresses offenses related to the unlawful interception, use, or disclosure of wire, oral, or electronic communications. No significant impact on the programs and workload of state corrections agencies is anticipated from this bill.

The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by the Texas Constitution. If the bill does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, it would take effect September 1, 2005.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
