

Amend HB 1481 by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION ____ . Subchapter A, Chapter 263, Family Code, is amended by adding Section 263.007 to read as follows:

Sec. 263.007. FOSTER CHILDREN'S BILL OF RIGHTS. (a) In this section, "foster children's bill of rights" means the list of rights prescribed by Subsection (b) to which each child in substitute care is entitled.

(b) It is the policy of this state that each child in substitute care has the right:

(1) to live in a safe, healthy, and comfortable home where the child is treated with respect;

(2) to be free from physical, sexual, emotional, and other abuse, including corporal punishment and any form of discipline that humiliates or demeans the child;

(3) to be free from discrimination or harassment on the basis of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, or HIV status;

(4) to receive adequate and healthy food;

(5) to receive and keep adequate clothing suitable to the child's age and size and comparable to the clothing of other children in the community;

(6) to receive appropriate medical, dental, vision, and mental health services;

(7) subject to Subdivisions (8) and (9), to not be physically restrained for longer than one minute unless other less restrictive behavioral interventions have been unsuccessful and physical restraint is necessary to:

(A) prevent substantial physical harm or imminent, probable death to the child or imminent physical harm to another person; or

(B) administer medication or provide medical treatment prescribed by a physician;

(8) to not be physically restrained for any period as punishment, retribution, retaliation, or discipline, to obtain compliance from the child, for the convenience of the foster parent or other substitute care provider, or as a substitute for effective treatment or rehabilitation;

(9) to not be locked or otherwise confined in any room, building, or facility or placed in an area where the child is physically prevented from leaving, unless the child is placed in a residential treatment facility or a mental health facility under an order of a physician or court;

(10) to be placed in substitute care with the child's siblings unless that placement is not in the best interests of the child or the child's sibling;

(11) if a sibling of the child is not placed in substitute care with the child, to be informed in writing of the name, address, and telephone number of the foster care home or other child-care facility in which the sibling is placed, unless prohibited by court order or the child's caseworker or a department supervisor determines that it is not in the child's best interests and the caseworker or supervisor, as applicable, includes the reason for that determination in the child's case records;

(12) to have a private storage space in the home or facility in which the child resides to store the child's personal belongings;

(13) to not be subjected to unreasonable searches of the child's personal belongings;

(14) to contact caseworkers, attorneys ad litem, guardians ad litem, and court-appointed special advocates;

(15) to communicate with caseworkers, judges, attorneys ad litem, guardians ad litem, court-appointed special advocates, foster parents, and other providers in the child's primary language, including in sign language;

(16) to regularly visit and regularly contact siblings and to regularly contact other family members, unless prohibited by court order or the child's caseworker or a department supervisor determines that it is not in the child's best interests and the caseworker or supervisor, as applicable, includes the reason for that determination in the child's case records;

(17) to never be denied contact or visitation with siblings or other family members as a form of discipline;

(18) to attend religious services and activities of the child's choice;

(19) to interact with persons outside of the foster care system, including teachers, church members, mentors, and friends;

(20) to make and receive confidential telephone calls and to send and receive unopened mail, unless prohibited by court order or the child's caseworker or a department supervisor determines that it is not in the child's best interests and the caseworker or supervisor, as applicable, includes the reason for that determination in the child's case records;

(21) to receive an age-appropriate money allowance, in an amount determined by the foster parent or other substitute care provider, for the purpose of developing money management skills, using money from the foster care payments made by the department to the foster parent or other substitute care provider for the care of the child;

(22) to maintain a personal bank account and manage personal income consistent with the child's age and developmental level, unless prohibited by the child's service plan;

(23) to expect that the child's records will be kept confidential in accordance with existing state and federal law, including the child's medical, mental health, child protective services, and educational records;

(24) to receive care and treatment in the least restrictive environment that is most like a family setting, consistent with the best interests and needs of the child;

(25) to not be unnecessarily or excessively medicated;

(26) to not be admitted as a voluntary inpatient to a mental health facility unless the child consents as required by Section 572.001(c), Health and Safety Code;

(27) if the child is at least 14 years of age, to request a medical review of the child's medical care, including a review of the medications prescribed to the child, by a medical review team, and to receive a copy of the results of any medical review;

(28) to be informed before the child is 16 years of age

that the child, at 16 years of age, may request a court hearing to determine if the child has the capacity to consent to medical care under Section 266.010;

(29) if the child is at least 16 years of age, to consent to all or some medical care, as authorized by the court under Section 266.010;

(30) if the child is at least 12 years of age, to participate in the development of the child's service plan and permanency plan;

(31) if the child is at least 12 years of age, to review and receive information regarding the child's service plan and permanency plan, including any changes made to the plans;

(32) to receive information about the child's foster parent or other substitute care provider consistent with the child's age and developmental level;

(33) to be appointed an attorney ad litem who is competent and provides zealous legal representation of the child's interests, and to meet, in person, with the child's attorney ad litem before each hearing involving the child;

(34) to request the appointment of an attorney or guardian ad litem to represent the child, if the child is not already represented by an attorney or guardian ad litem;

(35) to attend a court hearing that affects the conservatorship or placement of the child, including a status hearing, a permanency review hearing, or a placement review hearing;

(36) if the child is at least 14 years of age, to remain in the courtroom during a court hearing that affects the conservatorship or placement of the child, including a status hearing, a permanency review hearing, or a placement review hearing;

(37) regardless of the child's age, to speak privately to the judge at a court hearing that affects the conservatorship or placement of the child, including a status hearing, a permanency review hearing, or a placement review hearing;

(38) if the child has a disability, to be informed, in writing, of the name, existence, purpose, telephone number, and address of the protection and advocacy system established in this state under the applicable federal developmental disability laws, as defined by Section 112.001, Human Resources Code, for the purpose of advocating for and protecting the rights of persons with that disability;

(39) to attend school and participate in sports, clubs, and other school-related extracurricular activities, consistent with the child's age and developmental level;

(40) to participate in community activities, including recreational and social activities, consistent with the child's age and developmental level;

(41) to the extent possible, to have minimal disruption in the child's education, including the right to attend the same school if placed with an alternative substitute care provider, unless otherwise ordered by the court;

(42) if the child participates in a special education program, to meet and consult with the surrogate parent assigned to the child in accordance with federal law, regarding the child's individualized education program prior to each admission, review, and dismissal committee meeting held regarding the child;

(43) to participate in an organization that advocates for or on behalf of foster youth;

(44) to work and develop job skills consistent with the child's age in accordance with state and federal law;

(45) if the child is at least 16 years of age, to have access to information regarding postsecondary educational and vocational options available to the child, including information regarding financial aid available for postsecondary education and the course work or other requirements required to complete vocational training and postsecondary educational programs;

(46) to attend classes and receive other services provided under the Preparation for Adult Living Program established under Section 264.121;

(47) on, or as soon as possible after, the date of the child's 18th birthday or the date the child's disabilities of minority are removed, to be provided with the child's health and education passport information, social security card, state-issued personal identification card, and a certified copy of the child's birth certificate;

(48) to be informed in writing of how the child may obtain copies of the child's case records;

(49) to be informed in writing of the name, address, and telephone number of the person at or the division or office of the department that handles complaints regarding a violation of the child's rights; and

(50) to make a confidential complaint with the appropriate person at or the division or office of the department, or to speak confidentially with an appropriate person at the department, regarding a violation of the child's rights without punishment or threat of punishment for making the complaint.

(c) This section may not be construed to require a foster parent or other substitute care provider to take any action that would impair the health or safety of a child in substitute care. Any action taken that is inconsistent with the foster children's bill of rights must be included in the permanency progress report or placement review report filed with a court.

(d) The department shall provide a written copy of the foster children's bill of rights to each child placed in substitute care in the child's primary language, if possible, and shall inform the child of the rights provided by the foster children's bill of rights:

(1) orally in the child's primary language, if possible, and in simple, nontechnical terms; or

(2) for a child who has a disability, including an impairment of vision or hearing, through any means that can reasonably be expected to result in successful communication with the child.

(e) A home or facility in which a child is placed in substitute care shall provide a copy of the foster children's bill of rights to a child on the child's request. The foster children's bill of rights must be printed in English and in a second language.

(f) The department shall promote the participation of foster children and former foster children in educating other foster children about the foster children's bill of rights.
