

Amend Amendment No. 1 by Guillen to HCR 193 on page 2 by striking lines 1-6 and substituting "WHEREAS, Any decision to create barriers on the border should take into account the gracious and genteel qualities that characterize local border communities; moreover, such construction, particularly through the application of eminent domain, must also take into account the pride and privilege of land ownership; now, therefore, be it".