

Amend HR 3 (adopting the house rules) on page 5, between lines 15 and 16, by adding the following Subsection (d) to Rule 1, Section 9 (Questions of Order):

(d) A question of order on a bill or on a joint resolution proposing or ratifying a constitutional amendment as to a violation of a section of the rules governing committee reports, committee minutes, or accompanying documentation must be raised immediately when the bill or resolution is taken up for consideration on second reading if the violation could have been detected from the face of the committee report or other public records before the bill or resolution is taken up on second reading. A question of order not timely raised as required by this subsection is waived and may not subsequently be raised as to the same violation.
