

Amend SB 1828 by striking page 1, lines 13-16 and substituting the following:

(b) A person may retain information accessed under this section only for providing proof of compliance with this code or a rule of the commission. Information retained must be printed to hard copy with a time and date confirmation from the transaction scan device at the end of each business day. After printing, the transaction scan device must clear the scanned information from the device or any memory in the device. The commission by rule may set further requirements for the retention of information under this section. Information retained under this section may not be retained for longer than the time required to prove compliance with this code or a rule of the commission.
