

BILL ANALYSIS

S.B.221

Committee Report (Unamended)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Currently, Texas requires supplementary birth certificates to be issued in lieu of standard birth certificates when an individual is adopted. Supplementary birth certificates differ from standard birth certificates because they do not divulge the name or location of the birth parents, regardless of the wishes of the adopted parents, child, or court.

Under current law, the original birth certificate cannot be accessed without an order issued by the same court that originally granted the adoption. In some cases, an adoptee may not be aware of which court granted their adoption, in which case the adoptee would have to pay a fee to register with the Central Adoption Registry in order to ascertain the court's name.

S.B.221 enables adults who were adopted as children to access their original birth certificate without having to go through the courts. In addition, this bill allows adoptive parents and adoptive children over the age of 12 and/or the courts to specify that a supplemental birth certificate need not be issued. S.B.221 establishes a procedure for adopted persons over the age of 18, or if the adopted person is deceased, his or her adult descendant, adult sibling, or surviving spouse, to obtain a copy of the original birth certificate. Finally, this bill creates a "contact preference form" to allow birth parents who do not wish to be reunited with an adopted child to express that preference.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.

(i) Prohibits the state registrar from releasing a noncertified copy of the adopted person's birth certificate, without a court order, regardless of the other birth parent's preference, if a parent files with the state registrar a contact preference form indicating the birth parent's preference that a noncertified copy of the adopted person's original birth certificate not be released.
