AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under standards adopted beginning January 1, 2007, some foster families were instructed to remove all firearms and ammunition from their property or they would no longer be eligible to serve as foster parents.

S.B. 322 prohibits the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) from prohibiting possession of firearms and ammunition in a foster home. This bill authorizes minimum standards to be adopted by DFPS for safety and proper storage of firearms and ammunition.
