

BILL ANALYSIS

S.B. 1305
By: Wentworth
Civil Practices
Committee Report (Unamended)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

In June of 2005, the Supreme Court of Texas (supreme court) adopted a docket order requiring the certification of all private process servers in Texas. The certification is administered by the Office of Court Administration and requires criminal background checks and training of process servers. Currently, the supreme court has certified over 2,500 individuals to serve process in Texas.

S.B. 1305 authorizes the clerk of the supreme court to collect fees from certified process servers. The bill requires the process server to complete a return of service stating when and on whom process was served, and to be signed by the process server, under penalty of perjury. The bill also authorizes process to be served in gated communities and makes changes to the service process on a domestic or foreign entity that is a registered agent and is also required to appoint a registered agent. In addition, the bill authorizes members of the process review board to be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in attending board meetings.
