16 AND DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIPS

17 SECTION 2.01. Sections 8(a), (b), (c), and (e), Texas
18 Probate Code, are amended to read as follows:

19 (a) Concurrent Venue. When two or more courts have 20 concurrent venue of an estate or a proceeding to declare heirship
21 under Section 48(a) of this code, the court in which the application 22 for a proceeding in probate or determination of heirship 23 [~~proceedings thereon~~] is first filed shall have and retain 24 jurisdiction of the estate or heirship proceeding, as appropriate,

1 to the exclusion of the other court or courts. The proceeding 2 [~~proceedings~~] shall be deemed commenced by the filing of an 3 application averring facts sufficient to confer venue; and the 4 proceeding first legally commenced shall extend to all of the 5 property of the decendent or the decendent's estate. Provided, 6 however, that a bona fide purchaser of real property in reliance on 7 any such subsequent proceeding, without knowledge of its 8 invalidity, shall be protected in such purchase unless the decree 9 admitting the will to probate, determining heirship, or granting 10 administration in the prior proceeding shall be recorded in the 11 office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is 12 located.

13 (b) Proceedings in More Than One County. If a proceeding in 14 [~~proceedings for~~] probate or to declare heirship under Section 15 48(a) of this code is [~~are~~] commenced in more than one county, the 16 proceeding [~~they~~] shall be stayed except in the county where first 17 commenced until final determination of venue in the county where 18 first commenced. If the proper venue is finally determined to be in 19 another county, the clerk, after making and retaining a true copy of 20 the entire file in the case, shall transmit the original file to the 21 proper county, and the proceeding [~~proceedings~~] shall thereupon be 22 had in the proper county in the same manner as if the proceeding 23 [~~proceedings~~] had originally been instituted therein.

24 (c) Transfer of Proceeding.

25 (1) Transfer for Want of Venue. If it appears to the 26 court at any time before the final decree that the proceeding was 27 commenced in a court which did not have priority of venue over such

1 proceeding, the court shall, on the application of any interested 2 person, transfer the proceeding to the proper county by 3 transmitting to the proper court in such county the original file in 4 such case, together with certified copies of all entries in the 5 minutes theretofore made, and the probate of the will, 6 determination of heirship, or administration of the estate in such 7 county shall be completed in the same manner as if the proceeding 8 had originally been instituted therein; but, if the question as to 9 priority of venue is not raised before final decree in the 10 proceedings is announced, the finality of such decree shall not be 11 affected by any error in venue.

12 (2) Transfer for Convenience of the Estate. If it 13 appears to the court at any time before the estate is closed or, if 14 there is no administration of the estate, when the proceeding in 15 probate or to declare heirship is concluded that it would be in the 16 best interest of the estate or, if there is no administration of the 17 estate, that it would be in the best interest of the heirs or 18 beneficiaries of the decedent's will, the court, in its discretion, 19 may order the proceeding transferred to the proper court in any 20 other county in this State. The clerk of the court from which the 21 proceeding is transferred shall transmit to the court to which the 22 proceeding is transferred the original file in the proceeding and a 23 certified copy of the index.

26 in probate or determination of heirship shall have full 27 jurisdiction to determine the venue of the [~~such~~] proceeding in

1 probate or heirship proceeding, and of any proceeding relating 2 thereto, and its determination shall not be subject to collateral 3 attack.

4 SECTION 2.02. Section 48(a), Texas Probate Code, is amended
5 to read as follows:

6 (a) When a person dies intestate owning or entitled to real 7 or personal property in Texas, and there shall have been no 8 administration in this State upon his estate; or when there has 9 been a will probated in this State or elsewhere, or an 10 administration in this State upon the estate of such decedent, and 11 any real or personal property in this State has been omitted from 12 such will or from such administration, or no final disposition 13 thereof has been made in such administration, the court of the 14 county in which such proceedings were last pending, or in the event 15 no will of such decedent has been admitted to probate in this State, 16 and no administration has been granted in this State upon the estate 17 of such decedent, then the court of the county in which venue would

24 decedent, and their respective shares and interests, under the laws
25 of this State, in the estate of such decedent, and proceedings 26 therefor shall be known as proceedings to declare heirship.

27 SECTION 2.03. The changes in law made by this article apply

1 only to a proceeding commenced on or after the effective date of 2 this article. A proceeding commenced before the effective date of 3 this article is governed by the law applicable to the proceeding
4 immediately before the effective date of this article, and that law 5 is continued in effect for that purpose.

6 ARTICLE 3. DISCLAIMERS

7 SECTION 3.01. Section 37A, Texas Probate Code, is amended
8 to read as follows:

9 Sec. 37A. MEANS OF EVIDENCING DISCLAIMER OR RENUNCIATION OF 10 PROPERTY OR INTEREST RECEIVABLE FROM A DECEDENT. (a) Persons Who

12 person, the personal representative of a deceased person, or the 13 guardian ad litem of an unborn or unascertained person, with prior 14 court approval of the court having, or which would have, 15 jurisdiction over such guardian, personal representative, or 16 guardian ad litem, or any independent executor of a deceased 17 person, without prior court approval, or an attorney in fact or 18 agent appointed under a durable power of attorney authorizing 19 disclaimers that is executed by a principal, who may be entitled to 20 receive any property as a beneficiary and who intends to effect
21 disclaimer irrevocably on or after September 1, 1977, of the whole 22 or any part of such property shall evidence same as herein provided.

23 (b) Effective Date of Disclaimer. A disclaimer evidenced as 24 provided by this section [~~herein~~] shall be effective as of the death 25 of decedent and shall relate back for all purposes to the death of 26 the decedent and is not subject to the claims of any creditor of the 27 disclaimant.

1 (c) Effect of Disclaimer. Unless the decedent's will 2 provides otherwise, the property subject to the disclaimer shall 3 pass as if the person disclaiming or on whose behalf a disclaimer is 4 made had predeceased the decedent and a future interest that would 5 otherwise take effect in possession or enjoyment after the 6 termination of the estate or interest that is disclaimed takes 7 effect as if the disclaiming beneficiary had predeceased the 8 decedent.

9 (d) Ineffective Disclaimer. Failure to comply with the 10 provisions of this section [~~hereof~~] shall render such disclaimer 11 ineffective except as an assignment of such property to those who 12 would have received same had the person attempting the disclaimer 13 died prior to the decedent.

14 (e) Definitions. The term "property" as used in this 15 section shall include all legal and equitable interests, powers, 16 and property, whether present or future, whether vested or 17 contingent, and whether beneficial or burdensome, in whole or in 18 part. The term "disclaimer" as used in this section shall include 19 "renunciation." In this section "beneficiary" includes a person 20 who would have been entitled, if the person had not made a 21 disclaimer, to receive property as a result of the death of another 22 person by inheritance, under a will, by an agreement between 23 spouses for community property with a right of survivorship, by a 24 joint tenancy with a right of survivorship, or by any other 25 survivorship agreement, account, or interest in which the interest 26 of the decedent passes to a surviving beneficiary, by an insurance, 27 annuity, endowment, employment, deferred compensation, or other

1 contract or arrangement, or under a pension, profit sharing, 2 thrift, stock bonus, life insurance, survivor income, incentive, or 3 other plan or program providing retirement, welfare, or fringe
4 benefits with respect to an employee or a self-employed individual.

5 (f) Subsequent Disclaimers. Nothing in this section shall 6 be construed to preclude a subsequent disclaimer by any person who 7 shall be entitled to property as a result of a disclaimer.

8 (g) Form [~~The following shall apply to such disclaimers:~~

9 [~~(a) Written Memorandum~~] of Disclaimer [~~and Filing~~ 10 ~~Thereof~~]. In the case of property receivable by a beneficiary, the 11 disclaimer shall be evidenced by a written memorandum, acknowledged 12 before a notary public or other person authorized to take 13 acknowledgements of conveyances of real estate.

14 (h) Filing of Disclaimer. Unless the beneficiary is a 15 charitable organization or governmental agency of the state, a 16 written memorandum of disclaimer disclaiming a present interest 17 shall be filed not later than nine months after the death of the 18 decedent and a written memorandum of disclaimer disclaiming a 19 future interest may be filed not later than nine months after the 20 event determining that the taker of the property or interest is 21 finally ascertained and his interest is indefeasibly vested. If 22 the beneficiary is a charitable organization or a governmental 23 agency of the state, a written memorandum of disclaimer disclaiming 24 a present or future interest shall be filed not later than the first 25 anniversary of the date [~~nine months after~~] the beneficiary
26 receives the notice required by Section 128A of this code, or the 27 expiration of the six-month period following the date the personal

1 representative files the inventory, appraisement, and list of 2 claims due or owing to the estate, whichever occurs later. The 3 written memorandum of disclaimer shall be filed in the probate 4 court in which the decedent's will has been probated or in which 5 proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the 6 decedent's estate or which has before it an application for either 7 of the same; provided, however, if the administration of the 8 decedent's estate is closed, or after the expiration of one year 9 following the date of the issuance of letters testamentary in an 10 independent administration, or if there has been no will of the 11 decedent probated or filed for probate, or if no administration of 12 the decedent's estate has been commenced, or if no application for 13 administration of the decedent's estate has been filed, the written 14 memorandum of disclaimer shall be filed with the county clerk of the 15 county of the decedent's residence, or, if the decedent is not a 16 resident of this state but real property or an interest therein 17 located in this state is disclaimed, a written memorandum of 18 disclaimer shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in 19 which such real property or interest therein is located, and 20 recorded by such county clerk in the deed records of that county.

21 (i) [~~(b)~~] Notice of Disclaimer. Unless the beneficiary is a 22 charitable organization or governmental agency of the state, copies 23 of any written memorandum of disclaimer shall be delivered in 24 person to, or shall be mailed by registered or certified mail to and 25 received by, the legal representative of the transferor of the 26 interest or the holder of legal title to the property to which the 27 disclaimer relates not later than nine months after the death of the 1 decedent or, if the interest is a future interest, not later than 2 nine months after the date the person who will receive the property 3 or interest is finally ascertained and the person's interest is 4 indefeasibly vested. If the beneficiary is a charitable 5 organization or government agency of the state, the notices 6 required by this section shall be filed not later than the first

7 anniversary of the date [~~nine months after~~] the beneficiary
8 receives the notice required by Section 128A of this code, or the 9 expiration of the six-month period following the date the personal 10 representative files the inventory, appraisement, and list of 11 claims due or owing to the estate, whichever occurs later.

12 (j) [~~(e)~~] Power to Provide for Disclaimer. Nothing herein 13 shall prevent a person from providing in a will, insurance policy, 14 employee benefit agreement, or other instrument for the making of 15 disclaimers by a beneficiary of an interest receivable under that 16 instrument and for the disposition of disclaimed property in a 17 manner different from the provisions hereof.

18 (k) [~~(d)~~] Irrevocability of Disclaimer. Any disclaimer
19 filed and served under this section shall be irrevocable.

20 (l) [~~(e)~~] Partial Disclaimer. Any person who may be 21 entitled to receive any property as a beneficiary may disclaim such 22 property in whole or in part, including but not limited to specific 23 powers of invasion, powers of appointment, and fee estate in favor 24 of life estates; and a partial disclaimer or renunciation, in 25 accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be effective 26 whether the property so renounced or disclaimed constitutes a 27 portion of a single, aggregate gift or constitutes part or all of a

1 separate, independent gift; provided, however, that a partial 2 disclaimer shall be effective only with respect to property
3 expressly described or referred to by category in such disclaimer; 4 and provided further, that a partial disclaimer of property which 5 is subject to a burdensome interest created by the decedent's will 6 shall not be effective unless such property constitutes a gift 7 which is separate and distinct from undisclaimed gifts.

8 (m) [~~(f)~~] Partial Disclaimer by Spouse. Without limiting 9 Subsection (1) [~~(e)~~] of this section, a disclaimer by the 10 decedent's surviving spouse of a transfer by the decedent is not a 11 disclaimer by the surviving spouse of all or any part of any other 12 transfer from the decedent to or for the benefit of the surviving 13 spouse, regardless of whether the property or interest that would 14 have passed under the disclaimed transfer passes because of the 15 disclaimer to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse by the 16 other transfer.

17 (n) [~~(g)~~] Disclaimer After Acceptance. No disclaimer shall 18 be effective after the acceptance of the property by the 19 beneficiary. For the purpose of this subsection [~~section~~], 20 acceptance shall occur only if the person making such disclaimer 21 has previously taken possession or exercised dominion and control 22 of such property in the capacity of beneficiary.

23 (o) [~~(h)~~] Interest in Trust Property. A beneficiary who 24 accepts an interest in a trust is not considered to have a direct or 25 indirect interest in trust property that relates to a licensed or 26 permitted business and over which the beneficiary exercises no 27 control. Direct or indirect beneficial ownership of not more than 1 five percent of any class of equity securities that is registered 2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 shall not be deemed to be 3 an ownership interest in the business of the issuer of such 4 securities within the meaning of any statute, pursuant thereto.

5 SECTION 3.02. Section 37B(b), Texas Probate Code, is 6 amended to read as follows:

7 (b) The assignment may, at the request of the assignor, be

21 proposed ward's marriage void based on the lack of mental capacity 22 of the ward or proposed ward is pending on the date of death of the 5 the marriage of the decedent if, on the date of the decedent's 6 death, the decedent was married, and that marriage commenced not 7 earlier than three years before the decedent's date of death. The 8 notice applicable to a proceeding for a declaratory judgment under 9 Chapter 37, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, applies to a

18 that, on the date the marriage occurred, the decedent did not have 19 the mental capacity to:

20 (1) consent to the marriage; and 21 (2) understand the nature of the marriage ceremony, if 22 a ceremony occurred.

23 (e) In a proceeding brought under Subsection (b) of this 24 section, a court that makes a finding described by Subsection (d) of 26 court finds that, after the date the marriage occurred, the 27 decedent:

1 (1) gained the mental capacity to recognize the 2 marriage relationship; and

3 (2) did recognize the marriage relationship.

4 (f) If the court declares a decedent's marriage void in a 5 proceeding described by Subsection (a) of this section or brought 20 be revoked; but, if no such executor be named in the will, or if the 21 executor named be disqualified, be dead, or shall renounce the 22 executorship, or shall ~~neglect or otherwise~~ fail or be unable to 23 accept and qualify within twenty days after the date of the probate 24 of the will, or shall fail ~~neglect~~ for a period of thirty days 25 after the discovery of such will to present it for probate, then 26 administration with the will annexed of the estate of such testator 27 shall be granted as in other cases. All acts done by the first

1 administrator, prior to the qualification of the executor or of the 2 administrator with the will annexed, shall be as valid as if no such 3 will had been discovered.

4 SECTION 7.02. Section 178(b), Texas Probate Code, is
5 amended to read as follows:

6 (b) Letters of Administration. When a person shall die 7 intestate, or where no executor is named in a will, or where the 8 executor is dead or shall fail [~~or neglect~~] to accept and qualify 9 within twenty days after the probate of the will, or shall fail 10 [~~neglect~~] for a period of thirty days after the death of the 11 testator to present the will for probate and the court finds there 12 was no good cause for not presenting the will for probate during 13 that period, then administration of the estate of such intestate, 14 or administration with the will annexed of the estate of such 15 testator, shall be granted, should administration appear to be 16 necessary. No administration of any estate shall be granted unless 17 there exists a necessity therefor, such necessity to be determined 18 by the court hearing the application. Such necessity shall be 19 deemed to exist if two or more debts exist against the estate, or if 20 or when it is desired to have the county court partition the estate 21 among the distributees, or if the administration is necessary to 22 receive or recover funds or other property due the estate, but 23 mention of these three [~~two~~] instances of necessity for 24 administration shall not prevent the court from finding other 25 instances of necessity upon proof before it.

27 to read as follows:

1 Sec. 179. OPPOSITION TO GRANT OF LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

3 interested person may at any time before the application is 4 granted, file the person's [~~his~~] opposition thereto in writing, and 5 may apply for the grant of letters to the person [~~himself~~] or to any 6 other person; and, upon the trial, the court shall grant letters to 7 the person that may seem best entitled to them, having regard to 8 applicable provisions of this Code, without further notice than 9 that of the original application.

10 SECTION 7.04. Section 190(b), Texas Probate Code, is 11 amended to read as follows:

12 (b) Administrator. Before the issuance of letters of 13 administration, the person appointed administrator shall take and 15 swear that _____, deceased, died without leaving any lawful will 16 (or that the named executor in any such will is dead or has failed 17 [~~or neglected~~] to offer the same for probate, or to accept and 18 qualify as executor, within the time required, as the case may be),
