6 amended by adding Section 157.009 to read as follows:

7 Sec. 157.009. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE TO MOTION FOR ENFORCEMENT
8 OF CHILD SUPPORT: DISABILITY PAYMENTS. (a) This section applies
9 only to an obligor who has a disability and who is required to pay 10 support for a child who receives benefits as a result of the 11 obligor's disability.

12 (b) An obligor may plead as an affirmative defense in whole 13 or in part to a motion for enforcement of child support that the 14 obligor is entitled to an offset against the obligee's claim for 15 child support arrearages and interest in an amount equal to the 16 amount of any benefit payments, including lump-sum benefit 17 payments, made as a result of the obligor's disability to the 18 obligee as the representative payee of the child.

19 (c) The offset permitted under this section may be applied
20 only against arrearages and interest that accrued during the period
21 of the obligor's disability and that are not assigned to the Title
22 IV-D agency under Section 231.104(a).

23 (d) To the extent that this section conflicts with

6 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 7 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 8 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 9 Act takes effect September 1, 2007.
