A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to limited agricultural cooperatives; providing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Title 4, Agriculture Code, is amended by adding Chapter 53 to read as follows:

CHAPTER 53. LIMITED AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVES

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 53.001. SHORT TITLE. This Act may be cited as the Limited Agricultural Cooperatives Act.

Sec. 53.002. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

(1) "Address" means mailing address, including a zip code. In the case of a registered address, the term means the mailing address and the actual office location, which may not be a post office box.

(2) "Articles of organization" means the articles of organization of a cooperative as originally filed and subsequently amended.

(3) "Association" means an organization conducting business on a cooperative plan under the laws of this state or another state that is chartered to conduct business under other laws of this state or another state.

(4) "Board" means the board of directors of a cooperative.

1           (5) "Business entity" means:

2                   (A) a corporation, limited liability company, 3 limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or other legal 4 entity, whether domestic or foreign;

5                   (B) an association; or

6                   (C) a body vested with the power or function of a 7 legal entity.

8           (6) "Cooperative" means an association organized 9 under this chapter conducting business on a cooperative plan as 10 provided under this chapter.

11           (7) "Domestic business entity" means a business entity 12 organized under the laws of this state.

13           (8) "Foreign business entity" means a business entity 14 that is not a domestic business entity.

15           (9) "Governing documents" has the meaning assigned by 16 Section 1.002, Business Organizations Code.

17           (10) "Jurisdiction of formation" has the meaning 18 assigned by Section 1.002, Business Organizations Code.

19           (11) "Member" means a person or entity shown on the 20 books of a cooperative as the owner of governance rights of a 21 membership interest of the cooperative and includes patron and 22 nonpatron members.

23           (12) "Membership interest" means a member's interest 24 in a cooperative consisting of a member's financial rights, a 25 member's right to assign financial rights, a member's governance 26 rights, and a member's right to assign governance rights.
27 Membership interest includes a patron membership interest and a

1 nonpatron membership interest.

2 (13) "Members' meeting" means a regular or special
3 members' meeting.

4 (14) "Merger" means:

5 (A) the division of a cooperative into two or 6 more new cooperatives or other business entities or into a 7 surviving cooperative and one or more new domestic or foreign 8 business entities; or

9 (B) the combination of one or more cooperatives 10 with one or more domestic or foreign business entities, resulting 11 in:

12 (i) one or more surviving cooperatives or 13 domestic or foreign business entities;

14 (ii) the creation of one or more new 15 cooperatives or domestic or foreign business entities; or

16 (iii) one or more surviving cooperatives or 17 business entities and the creation of one or more new cooperatives 18 or business entities.

19 (15) "Nonpatron membership interest" means a 20 membership interest that does not require the holder to conduct 21 patronage business for or with the cooperative to receive financial 22 rights or distributions.

23 (16) "Patron" means a person or entity that conducts 24 patronage business with a cooperative.

25 (17) "Patronage" means business, transactions, or 26 services done for or with the cooperative as defined by the 27 cooperative.

1           (18) "Patron member" means a member who holds a patron
2 membership interest.

3           (19) "Patron membership interest" means a membership 4 interest that requires the holder to conduct patronage business for 5 or with the cooperative, as specified by the cooperative, to 6 receive financial rights or distributions.

7           Sec. 53.003. APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW. To the extent the 8 provision is not inconsistent with this chapter, the provisions of 9 Title 1, Business Organizations Code, apply to a cooperative in the 10 same manner as if the cooperative were a domestic limited liability 11 company.

12           Sec. 53.004. FEES. The secretary of state shall impose a 13 fee of:

14           (1) $300 for filing articles of organization under 15 this chapter;

16           (2) $150 for filing articles of amendment under this 17 chapter;

18           (3) $300 for filing restated articles of organization
19 under this chapter;

20           (4) $15 for filing a statement of change of registered 21 agent or change of registered office, or both, under this chapter;

22           (5) $300 for filing a merger or conversion under this 23 chapter, which is in addition to any fee imposed for filing 24 formation documents for a domestic business entity or cooperative 25 created by the merger or conversion;

26           (6) $40 for filing articles of dissolution under this 27 chapter;

1           (7) $75 for filing an application for reinstatement
2 under this chapter;

3           (8) $15 for filing a certificate of correction under 4 this chapter; and

5           (9) $15 for filing any other instrument permitted or 6 authorized by this chapter.

7           [Sections 53.005-53.050 reserved for expansion]

8                   SUBCHAPTER B. PURPOSE AND POWERS

9           Sec. 53.051. ORGANIZATIONAL PURPOSE. A cooperative may be 10 formed and organized on a cooperative plan under this chapter to 11 market, process, or otherwise change the form or marketability of 12 crops, livestock, and other agricultural products, including 13 manufacturing and further processing of products, and other 14 purposes that are necessary or convenient to facilitate the 15 production or marketing of agricultural products by patron members 16 or that are related to the business of the cooperative.

17           Sec. 53.052. POWERS. (a) In addition to other powers, a
18 cooperative:

19                   (1) may perform each act or thing necessary or proper 20 to the conduct of the cooperative's business or the accomplishment 21 of the purposes of the cooperative;

22                   (2) has the rights, powers, and privileges granted to 23 a domestic entity under Chapter 2, Business Organizations Code, 24 except those that are inconsistent with this chapter; and 25                   (3) has the powers provided by this section.

26           (b) A cooperative may buy, sell, or deal in its own 27 products, the products of the cooperative's individual members,

1 patrons, or nonmembers, the products of another cooperative
2 association or of its members or patrons, or the products of another 3 person or entity. A cooperative may negotiate the price for which 4 the products the cooperative sells may be sold.

5 (c) A cooperative may enter into or become a party to a 6 contract or agreement for the cooperative or for the cooperative's 7 individual members or patrons or between the cooperative and its 8 members.

9 (d) A cooperative may purchase and hold, lease, mortgage, 10 encumber, sell, exchange, or convey real property, buildings, and 11 personal property as the business of the cooperative may require, 12 including the sale or other disposition of assets required by the 13 business of the cooperative as determined by the board.

14 (e) A cooperative may erect buildings or other structures or 15 facilities on land owned or leased by the cooperative or on a 16 right-of-way acquired by the cooperative.

17 (f) A cooperative may issue bonds or other evidence of 18 indebtedness and may borrow money to finance the business of the 19 cooperative.

20 (g) A cooperative may make advances to the cooperative's 21 members or patrons on products delivered by the members or patrons 22 to the cooperative.

23 (h) A cooperative may accept deposits of money from other 24 cooperatives, associations, or its members.

25 (i) A cooperative may extend trade credit to or borrow money 26 from individual members, cooperatives, or associations from which 27 it is constituted using security that it considers sufficient in 1 dealing with the members, cooperatives, or associations.

2 (j) If reasonably necessary or incidental to accomplish the 3 purposes stated in its articles of organization, a cooperative may 4 purchase, acquire, hold, or dispose of an ownership interest in 5 another business entity, whether organized under the laws of this 6 state or another state, and assume all rights, interests, 7 privileges, responsibilities, and obligations arising out of the 8 ownership interest.

9 (k) A cooperative may acquire and hold an ownership interest 10 in another business entity organized under the laws of this or 11 another state, including a business entity organized:

12 (1) as a federation of associations;

13 (2) for the purpose of forming a district, state, or 14 national marketing, sales, or service agency; or 15 (3) for the purpose of acquiring marketing facilities 16 at terminal or other markets in this state or other states.

17 (l) A cooperative may purchase, own, and hold ownership 18 interests, memberships, interests in nonstock capital, or 19 evidences of indebtedness of any domestic business entity or 20 foreign business entity if reasonably necessary or incidental to 21 accomplish the purposes stated in the articles of organization.

22 (m) A cooperative may exercise any fiduciary power in 23 relations with the members, cooperatives, associations, or 24 business entities from which it is constituted.

25 (n) A cooperative may take, receive, and hold real and 26 personal property, including the principal of and interest on money 27 or other funds and rights in a contract, in trust for any purpose

1 not inconsistent with the purposes of the cooperative stated in its 2 articles of organization and may exercise fiduciary powers in 3 relation to the taking, receiving, or holding of the property.

4 (o) A cooperative may not act as a credit union, bank, trust 5 company, savings bank, or savings association regulated under the 6 Finance Code.

7 Sec. 53.053. AGRICULTURAL PRODUCT MARKETING CONTRACTS. (a)
8 A cooperative and its patron member or patron may make and execute a 9 marketing contract that requires the patron member or patron to 10 sell a specified portion of the patron member's or patron's 11 agricultural product or specified commodity produced from a certain 12 area exclusively to or through the cooperative or a facility 13 established by the cooperative.

14 (b) If a sale is contracted to the cooperative, the sale
15 transfers title to the product absolutely, subject only to a 16 recorded lien or security interest, to the cooperative on delivery 17 of the product or at another specified time if expressly provided in 18 the contract. The contract may allow the cooperative to sell or 19 resell the product with or without taking title to the product and 20 pay the resale price to the patron member or patron after deducting 21 all necessary selling, overhead, and other costs and expenses, 22 including other proper reserves and interest.

23 (c) The term of a marketing contract may not exceed 10 24 years, but a marketing contract may be made self-renewing for 25 subsequent periods of five years each, subject to the right of 26 either party to terminate by giving written notice of the 27 termination as specified in the contract.

1       (d) The bylaws or the marketing contract, or both, may set a 2 specific sum as liquidated damages to be paid by the patron member 3 or patron to the cooperative for a breach of any provision of a 4 marketing contract regarding the sale, delivery, or withholding of 5 a product and may provide that the patron member or patron shall pay 6 the costs, premiums for bonds, expenses, and fees if an action is 7 brought on the contract by the cooperative. The remedies for breach 8 of contract are valid and enforceable in the courts of this state.
9 The provisions shall be enforced as liquidated damages and may not 10 be considered or regarded as a penalty.

11       (e) On a breach or threatened breach of a marketing contract 12 by a patron member or patron, the cooperative is entitled to seek an 13 injunction to prevent the breach and to specific performance of the 14 contract. Pending the adjudication of the action, the cooperative 15 may be granted a temporary restraining order and preliminary 16 injunction against the patron member or patron.

17       (f) A person commits an offense if the person knowingly 18 induces or attempts to induce a member or patron of a cooperative to 19 breach a marketing contract with the cooperative or knowingly 20 spreads false reports about the finances or management of a 21 cooperative organized under this chapter. An offense under this 22 subsection is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than 23 $100 or more than $1,000. It is a defense to prosecution under this 24 subsection that the person is a bona fide creditor of the 25 cooperative or the agent or attorney of a bona fide creditor 26 attempting to collect a debt of the cooperative.

27       (g) A person is liable to the cooperative for civil damages

1 if the person:

2 (1) knowingly induces a member or patron of a 3 cooperative to breach a marketing contract with the cooperative; or

4 (2) knowingly spreads false reports about the finances
5 or management of a cooperative.

6 Sec. 53.054. DISTRIBUTION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY. (a) A 7 cooperative may, instead of paying or delivering unclaimed property 8 to this state, distribute the unclaimed property to a corporation 9 or organization that is exempt from federal income taxation. To be 10 valid, a cooperative that elects to distribute unclaimed property 11 must file with the comptroller:

12 (1) a verified, written explanation of the proof of 13 claim of an owner establishing a right to receive the abandoned 14 property;

15 (2) any error in the presumption of abandonment;

16 (3) the name, address, and exemption number of the 17 corporation or organization to which the property was or is to be 18 distributed; and 19 (4) the approximate date of distribution.

20 (b) This section does not alter any procedure provided by 21 law for a cooperative to report unclaimed property to this state or 22 a requirement that the claims of an owner be made to the cooperative 23 for a period following the publication of a list of abandoned
24 property.

25 (c) The entitlement of an owner to unclaimed property held 26 by a cooperative is extinguished when the property is distributed 27 under this section.

2 SUBCHAPTER C. FILINGS

3 Sec. 53.101. WHEN FILINGS TAKE EFFECT. (a) Except as 4 permitted by Subsection (b) or as otherwise provided by this 5 chapter, a filing instrument submitted to the secretary of state 6 takes effect when filed.

7 (b) The date and time at which a filing instrument takes 8 effect may be delayed as provided by Subchapter B, Chapter 4, 9 Business Organizations Code.

10 Sec. 53.102. ABANDONMENT BEFORE EFFECTIVENESS. The parties 11 to a filing instrument may abandon the filed instrument if the 12 instrument has not taken effect by filing a certificate of 13 abandonment in accordance with Section 4.057, Business 14 Organizations Code.

15 Sec. 53.103. CORRECTING AN ERRONEOUS OR DEFECTIVE 16 INSTRUMENT. (a) A cooperative may, by filing a certificate of 17 correction in accordance with Subchapter C, Chapter 4, Business
18 Organizations Code, correct any instrument filed with the secretary 19 of state if the instrument is an inaccurate record of the event or 20 transaction evidenced in the instrument, contains an inaccurate or 21 erroneous statement, or was defectively or erroneously signed, 22 sealed, acknowledged, or verified.

23 (b) The certificate of correction must be signed by a 24 director or authorized officer of the cooperative.

25 (c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), after the 26 certificate of correction is filed by the secretary of state, the 27 filing instrument is considered to have been corrected on the date

1 the filing instrument was originally filed.

2 (d) With respect to a person who is adversely affected by 3 the correction, the filing instrument is considered to have been 4 corrected on the date the certificate of correction is filed.

5 (e) A certificate issued by the secretary of state before a 6 filing instrument is corrected, with respect to the effect of 7 filing the original filing instrument, applies to the corrected 8 filing instrument as of the date the corrected filing instrument is 9 considered to have been filed under this section.

10 Sec. 53.104. SIGNATURE AND GENERAL FILING REQUIREMENTS.

11 (a) Unless otherwise provided by this chapter, a filing instrument 12 submitted by or on behalf of a cooperative must be signed by an 13 authorized officer of the cooperative.

14 (b) If the cooperative is under the control of a receiver, 15 trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, a filing instrument 16 may be signed by that fiduciary.

17 (c) A person authorized to sign a filing instrument for a 18 cooperative is not required to show evidence of the person's 19 authority as a requirement for filing.

20 (d) A photographic, photostatic, facsimile, electronic, or 21 similar reproduction of a filing instrument, signature, 22 acknowledgment of filing, certificate, or communication may be 23 filed or issued in place of:

24 (1) an original filing instrument;

25 (2) an original signature on a filing instrument; or 26 (3) an original certificate or acknowledgment of 27 filing or other written communication from the secretary of state

1 relating to a filing instrument.

2 (e) To be accepted and filed by the secretary of state, an 3 instrument that is submitted for filing must satisfy the filing 4 requirements of this chapter, the requirements of any other law 5 that is made applicable to the instrument or cooperative by this 6 chapter, and any administrative rule adopted by the secretary of 7 state relating to the instrument.

8 (f) If the secretary of state finds that a filing instrument
9 conforms to the requirements of Subsection (e) and all required 10 fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall:

11 (1) file the instrument by accepting it into the 12 filing system adopted by the secretary of state and assigning the 13 instrument a date of filing; and

14 (2) deliver a written acknowledgment or certificate 15 evidencing filing to the cooperative or its representative.

16 (g) If a duplicate copy of a filing instrument is delivered 17 to the secretary of state, on accepting the filing instrument the 18 secretary of state shall endorse the duplicate copy with the word 19 "Filed" and the month, day, and year of filing and return the 20 duplicate copy to the cooperative or its representative with the 21 written acknowledgment or certificate evidencing filing.

22 Sec. 53.105. APPEALS FROM SECRETARY OF STATE'S REFUSAL TO 23 FILE INSTRUMENT. A person may appeal the secretary of state's 24 disapproval of the filing of an instrument only as provided by 25 Section 12.004, Business Organizations Code.

26 Sec. 53.106. PENALTY FOR SUBMISSION OF A FALSE OR 27 FRAUDULENT INSTRUMENT. Section 4.008, Business Organizations Code,

1 applies to a filing instrument under this chapter.

2 Sec. 53.107. SECRETARY OF STATE; DUTIES AND AUTHORITY. (a)
3 The duty of the secretary of state to file instruments under this 4 chapter is ministerial.

5 (b) The secretary of state may adopt procedural rules for 6 the filing of instruments authorized to be filed with the secretary 7 of state under this chapter.

8 (c) The secretary of state may adopt forms for a filing 9 instrument authorized or required by this chapter.

10 (d) The secretary of state has the power and authority 11 reasonably necessary to perform the duties imposed under this 12 chapter.

14 SUBCHAPTER D. ORGANIZATION

15 Sec. 53.151. ORGANIZERS. A cooperative may be organized by 16 one or more organizers who must be adult individuals and who may act 17 for themselves or as agents for other entities. An organizer of the 18 cooperative is not required to become a member of the cooperative.

19 Sec. 53.152. COOPERATIVE NAME. (a) The name of a 20 cooperative must comply with Subchapters A and B, Chapter 5, 21 Business Organizations Code, in the manner required of a domestic 22 filing entity.

23 (b) A cooperative may conduct business under a name other 24 than the name stated in the articles of organization if the 25 cooperative files an assumed name certificate in accordance with 26 Chapter 36, Business & Commerce Code.

27 (c) A cooperative's name may not infringe on the rights of 1 another person under:

2 (1) the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended (15 U.S.C.
3 Section 1051 et seq.);

4 (2) Chapter 16 or 36, Business & Commerce Code; or 5 (3) common law.

6 Sec. 53.153. ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION. (a) The organizers
7 shall prepare the articles of organization, which must include:

8 (1) the name of the cooperative;

9 (2) the purpose of the cooperative;

10 (3) the principal place of business for the 11 cooperative;

12 (4) the period of duration for the cooperative, if the 13 duration is not perpetual;

14 (5) the capital structure of the cooperative, 15 including a statement of the classes and relative rights, 16 preferences, and restrictions granted to or imposed on each type of 17 member interest, the rights to share in profits or distributions of 18 the cooperative, and the authority to issue member interests, which 19 may be designated to be determined by the board;

20 (6) a provision designating the voting and governance 21 rights, including which membership interests have voting power and 22 any limitation or restriction on the voting power, which must be in 23 accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

24 (7) a statement that a patron membership interest with 25 voting power is restricted to one vote for each member regardless of 26 the amount of the patron membership interest held in the affairs of 27 the cooperative, or a statement describing a different allocation

1 of voting power as provided for in this chapter;

2 (8) a statement that a membership interest held by a 3 member is transferable only with the approval of the board or as 4 provided in the bylaws;

5 (9) the names, mailing addresses, and terms of office 6 of the directors of the initial board;

7 (10) a statement as to how profits and losses are to be 8 allocated and cash distributed between patron membership interests 9 collectively and nonpatron membership interests collectively;

10 (11) a statement that net income allocated to a patron 11 membership interest as determined by the board in excess of 12 dividends and additions to reserves is to be distributed on the 13 basis of patronage and that the records of the cooperative are to 14 include the interests of patron membership interests and nonpatron 15 membership interests, which may be additionally described in the 16 bylaws of any class and in the reserves; and 17 (12) the street address of the cooperative's initial 18 registered office and the name of the cooperative's registered 19 agent at the office.

20 (b) The articles of organization must indicate if a 21 cooperative is being formed under a plan of conversion or a plan of 22 merger. If the cooperative is being formed under a plan of 23 conversion, the articles of organization must state the name, 24 address, date of formation, organizational form, and jurisdiction 25 of formation of the entity being converted to a cooperative under 26 the plan.

27 (c) The articles of organization shall contain the

1 provisions described by Subsections (a) and (b), except that the 2 names and mailing addresses of the directors of the initial board 3 may be omitted after their successors have been elected by the 4 members or the articles of organization are amended or restated in 5 their entirety.

6 (d) The articles of organization may contain any other 7 lawful provision. The articles of organization are not required to 8 state any of the powers provided to the cooperative under this 9 chapter.

10 (e) The articles of organization must be signed by the 11 organizers.

12 (f) Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, the 13 original articles of organization must be filed with the secretary 14 of state. The articles of organization for a cooperative that is 15 formed under a plan of merger or conversion must be filed with the 16 articles of merger or certificate of conversion and are not 17 required to be separately filed. If the secretary of state 18 determines that articles of organization submitted with articles of 19 merger or a certificate of conversion meet the requirements of this 20 chapter, the secretary of state shall file the articles of 21 organization and issue a certificate of organization. In the case 22 of a merger or conversion, the certificate of organization of the 23 cooperative that is the converted entity or that is created under 24 the plan of merger becomes effective when the merger or conversion 25 becomes effective.

26 (g) When the articles of organization are filed with the 27 secretary of state and the required fee is paid, it is presumed

1 that:

2 (1) all conditions precedent required to be performed 3 by the organizers have been complied with;

4 (2) the cooperative has been chartered by this state 5 as a separate legal entity; and 6 (3) the secretary of state will issue a certificate of 7 organization to the cooperative.

8 Sec. 53.154. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION. (a)

9 The articles of organization of a cooperative may be amended as 10 follows:

11 (1) the board by majority vote must pass a resolution 12 stating the text of the proposed amendment;

13 (2) the text of the proposed amendment and an attached 14 mail ballot if the board has provided for a mail ballot in the 15 resolution, or a description of an alternative voting method 16 approved by the board and stated in the resolution, must be mailed 17 or distributed with a regular or special meeting notice to each 18 member;

19 (3) the notice must designate the time and place of the 20 meeting for the proposed amendment to be considered and voted on; 21 and

22 (4) if a quorum of the members is registered as being 23 present or represented by alternative vote at the meeting, the 24 proposed amendment is adopted:

25 (A) when approved by a majority of the votes 26 cast; or

27 (B) if the cooperative has articles of 1 organization or bylaws that require more than majority approval or 2 other conditions for approval, when approved by a proportion of the 3 votes cast or a number of total members as required by the articles 4 of organization or bylaws and when the conditions for approval in 5 the articles of organization or bylaws have been complied with.

6 (b) After an amendment has been adopted, the cooperative 7 shall file with the secretary of state articles of amendment signed 8 by the chair, vice chair, records officer, or assistant records 9 officer that:

10 (1) state the name of the cooperative;

11 (2) identify by reference or description each 12 provision being added, altered, or deleted;

13 (3) provide the amended text of each section that is 14 added or altered; and

15 (4) include a statement that the amendment was 16 approved in the manner required by this section and by the 17 cooperative's governing documents.

18 (c) A certificate shall be prepared stating:

19 (1) the vote and meeting of the board adopting a 20 resolution of the proposed amendment;

21 (2) the notice given to members of the meeting at which 22 the amendment was adopted;

23 (3) the quorum registered at the meeting; and 24 (4) the votes cast adopting the amendment.

25 (d) The certificate shall be signed by the chair, vice 26 chair, records officer, or financial officer and filed with the 27 records of the cooperative.

1       (e) A majority of directors may amend the articles of 2 organization if the cooperative does not have any members with 3 voting rights.

4       Sec. 53.155. RESTATED ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION. (a) A 5 cooperative may authorize, execute, and file restated articles of 6 organization using the procedures for amending the articles of 7 organization under Section 53.154. The restated articles of 8 organization must restate the entire text of the cooperative's 9 articles of organization and incorporate all amendments previously 10 filed with the secretary of state. The restated articles of 11 organization may incorporate new amendments not previously filed 12 with the secretary of state.

13       (b) Unless otherwise provided by the articles of 14 organization or bylaws, member approval is not required to file 15 restated articles of organization if the restated text consists 16 only of the text of articles of organization and amendments 17 previously filed with the secretary of state.

18       (c) Restated articles of organization must be signed by an 19 authorized officer of the cooperative and filed in accordance with 20 Section 3.059, Business Organizations Code.

21       (d) Restated articles of organization may omit the name and 22 address of each organizer and may insert the names and addresses of 23 the current directors of the cooperative in place of similar 24 information concerning the initial directors.

25       Sec. 53.156. CONVERSION OF AN EXISTING ASSOCIATION TO BE 26 GOVERNED BY THIS CHAPTER. (a) Notwithstanding any other law of 27 this state, an existing association incorporated under this code or

1 organized under another law of this state is authorized to convert 2 and become subject to the provisions of this chapter by adopting a 3 plan of conversion.

4 (b) To effect a conversion, the converting association must 5 act on and the members of the association must approve a plan of 6 conversion in the manner provided for the approval of a plan of 7 merger by an association if the association does not survive the 8 merger. If a law or the governing documents of the association do 9 not provide a method to approve a merger if the association does not 10 survive the merger, the members of the association may approve a 11 plan of conversion in the manner provided by Chapter 10, Business 12 Organizations Code, for the adoption and approval of a conversion 13 by a domestic entity.

14 (c) The plan of conversion must include:

15 (1) the name of the association that is the converting 16 entity;

17 (2) the name of the cooperative that is the converted 18 entity;

19 (3) a statement that the converting entity is 20 continuing its existence as a cooperative governed by this chapter;

21 (4) the proposed effect of the conversion on the 22 members and patron members of the converting entity;

23 (5) the manner and basis of converting the membership 24 interests of the converting entity into membership interests of the 25 cooperative; and

26 (6) the articles of organization of the cooperative, 27 which must meet the requirements of Section 53.153 and may be

1 included as an attachment or exhibit to the plan of conversion.

2 (d) A plan of conversion may include any other provisions
3 relating to the conversion allowed by law.

4 (e) On approval of the plan of conversion, a certificate of 5 conversion must be filed with the secretary of state for the 6 conversion to be effective. The certificate of conversion must 7 include:

8 (1) the plan of conversion, or a statement certifying:

9 (A) the name, entity type, and jurisdiction of 10 organization of the converting entity;

11 (B) the name of the cooperative that is the 12 converted entity;

13 (C) that the converting entity is continuing its 14 existence as a cooperative governed by this chapter;

15 (D) that a signed plan of conversion is on file at 16 the principal place of business of the converting entity and 17 certifying the address of the principal place of business;

18 (E) that a signed plan of conversion will be on 19 file at the principal place of business of the converted entity and 20 certifying the address of the principal place of business; and

21 (F) that a copy of the plan of conversion will be 22 furnished, without cost, on written request to any member of the 23 converting entity or the converted entity by:

24 (i) the converting entity before the 25 conversion; or

26 (ii) the converted entity after the 27 conversion;

1           (2) a statement that the plan of conversion has been 2 approved as required by this section, by the law governing the 3 converting entity, and by the governing documents of the converting 4 entity; and

5           (3) the articles of organization of the cooperative
6 that is to be formed under the plan of conversion.

7           (f) When a conversion takes effect, each member of the 8 converting association has a membership interest in the cooperative 9 resulting from the conversion. This subsection does not apply to:

10           (1) a member who receives payment for the person's 11 interest under a law providing for dissent and appraisal; or

12           (2) a person who agrees to an alternative disposition 13 of the person's interest under the conversion.

14           (g) An association may not convert under this section if, as 15 a result of the conversion, a member of the association would become 16 personally liable for a liability or other obligation of the 17 cooperative without that person's consent.

18           (h) When the conversion takes effect:

19           (1) the converting entity continues to exist, without 20 interruption, as a cooperative governed by this chapter rather than 21 in the organizational form of the entity before the conversion;

22           (2) each right or title to or interest in property 23 owned by the converting entity continues to be owned, subject to any 24 existing lien or other encumbrance on the property, by the 25 cooperative without:

26                   (A) reversion or impairment;

27                   (B) further act or deed; or

1           (C) any transfer or assignment having occurred;

2           (3) each liability or obligation of the converting 3 entity continues to be a liability or obligation of the cooperative 4 without impairment or diminution because of the conversion;

5           (4) the rights of creditors or other parties with 6 respect to or against the previous members of the converting entity
7 in their capacities as members continue to exist and may be enforced
8 by the creditors and obligees as if a conversion had not occurred;

9           (5) a proceeding pending by or against the converting 10 entity or by or against any of the converting entity's members in 11 their capacities as members may be continued by or against the 12 cooperative and by or against the previous members without 13 substituting a party;

14           (6) the membership interests of the converting entity 15 are converted into membership interests of the converted entity as 16 provided in the plan of conversion and the former members of the 17 converting entity are entitled only to the rights provided in the 18 plan of conversion or under a right of dissent and appraisal as 19 provided by law; and

20           (7) if a member of the converted entity is liable after 21 the conversion takes effect for the liabilities or obligations of 22 the converted entity in the person's capacity as a member, the 23 person is liable for the liabilities and obligations of the 24 converting entity that existed before the conversion took effect
25 only to the extent that the person:

26           (A) agrees in writing to be liable for the 27 liabilities or obligations;

1           (B) was liable, before the conversion took 2 effect, for the liabilities or obligations; or

3           (C) becomes liable under other applicable law for 4 the existing liabilities and obligations of the converted entity as 5 a result of becoming a member of the converted entity.

6           Sec. 53.157. CONVERSION OF AN EXISTING BUSINESS ENTITY TO 7 BE GOVERNED BY THIS CHAPTER. (a) A business entity other than an 8 association described by Section 53.156 may convert to a 9 cooperative governed by this chapter by adopting a plan of 10 conversion and by filing a certificate of conversion as provided by 11 Section 53.156.

12           (b) To effect the conversion, the business entity must take 13 any action that may be required for a conversion under the laws of 14 the entity's jurisdiction of formation and the entity's governing 15 documents.

16           (c) The conversion must be permitted by the laws under which 17 the business entity is incorporated or organized, or by its 18 governing documents if the governing documents are not inconsistent 19 with the laws of the entity's jurisdiction of formation.

20           Sec. 53.158. EXISTENCE. (a) The existence of a cooperative 21 begins when the filing of the articles of organization takes effect 22 as provided by this chapter.

23           (b) A cooperative has a perpetual duration unless the 24 articles of organization provide for a limited period of duration.

25           Sec. 53.159. REGISTERED AGENT; CHANGE OF REGISTERED OFFICE
26 OR REGISTERED AGENT. (a) Each cooperative must continuously 27 maintain in this state:

1           (1) a registered office, which may be the same as its 2 place of business; and

3           (2) a registered agent, which may be:

4                 (A) an individual resident of this state whose 5 business office is the same as the cooperative's registered office; 6 or

7                 (B) a domestic business entity, or a foreign 8 business entity authorized to transact business in this state, 9 whose business office is the same as the cooperative's registered 10 office.

11           (b) A cooperative may change its registered office or agent 12 on filing with the secretary of state a statement that includes:

13                 (1) the name of the cooperative;

14                 (2) the address of the cooperative's current 15 registered office;

16                 (3) the address of the cooperative's new registered 17 office if the cooperative is changing its registered office;

18                 (4) the name of the cooperative's current registered 19 agent;

20                 (5) the name of the cooperative's new registered agent 21 if the cooperative is changing its registered agent;

22                 (6) a certification that the address of the 23 cooperative's registered office and the address of the business 24 office of the cooperative's registered agent are identical; and 25                 (7) a certification that the change in the 26 cooperative's registered agent or registered office was authorized 27 by an affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors of

1 the cooperative.

2 (c) The statement under Subsection (b) shall be signed and 3 delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds 4 that the statement meets the requirements of this section, the 5 secretary of state shall file the statement. The change of address 6 of the registered office or the appointment of a new registered 7 agent is effective when filed by the secretary of state.

8 (d) A registered agent of a cooperative may resign as agent
9 in the manner provided by Section 5.204, Business Organizations 10 Code.

11 (e) The registered agent of a cooperative may change its 12 name, its address as the address of the cooperative's registered 13 office, or both, by filing a statement of the change in accordance 14 with Section 5.203, Business Organizations Code.

15 Sec. 53.160. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN REGISTERED AGENT OR 16 REGISTERED OFFICE; INVOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION AND REINSTATEMENT. (a) 17 If the secretary of state determines that a cooperative has failed 18 to maintain a registered agent or registered office in this state as 19 required by law, the secretary of state may notify the cooperative 20 of the failure by regular or certified mail addressed to the 21 cooperative's registered office or principal place of business as 22 shown on the records of the secretary of state.

23 (b) The secretary of state may involuntarily dissolve a 24 cooperative at any time after the 90th day after the date that 25 notice under Subsection (a) was mailed if the cooperative has 26 continuously failed to maintain a registered agent or registered 27 office as required by law.

1       (c) If the secretary of state involuntarily dissolves a 2 cooperative under this section, the secretary of state shall:

3           (1) issue a certificate of involuntary dissolution;
4 and

5           (2) deliver the certificate of involuntary 6 dissolution by regular or certified mail to the cooperative at its 7 registered office or principal place of business.

8       (d) The certificate of involuntary dissolution must state:

9           (1) that the cooperative has been involuntarily 10 dissolved; and

11           (2) the date of and the reason for the involuntary 12 dissolution.

13       (e) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the 14 existence of the cooperative is terminated on the issuance of the 15 certificate of involuntary dissolution by the secretary of state.

16       (f) The secretary of state shall reinstate a cooperative 17 that has been involuntarily dissolved under this section if the 18 cooperative files an application for reinstatement with the 19 secretary of state as prescribed for a filing entity by Section 20 11.253, Business Organizations Code, and:

21           (1) the entity files a statement of change of 22 registered agent or registered office, or both; or

23           (2) the secretary of state finds that the 24 circumstances that led to the involuntary dissolution did not exist 25 at the time of termination.

26       (g) The secretary of state may not reinstate a cooperative 27 if the cooperative name is the same as or deceptively similar or

1 similar to a name of a cooperative or other domestic or foreign 2 business entity already on file, reserved, or registered with the 3 secretary of state. This subsection does not prevent a cooperative 4 from being reinstated if the cooperative files an amendment to its 5 articles of organization, accompanied by the required fee, to 6 change its name to a name that does not violate this subsection.

7 (h) Section 11.253(d), Business Organizations Code, applies
8 to a cooperative that is reinstated under Subsection (f) to the same 9 extent it applies to a filing entity reinstated under Section
10 11.253, Business Organizations Code.

12 SUBCHAPTER E. BYLAWS

13 Sec. 53.201. BYLAWS. (a) A cooperative shall adopt bylaws 14 governing the cooperative's business affairs and structure, the 15 qualifications, classification, rights, and obligations of its 16 members, and the classifications, allocations, and distributions 17 of membership interests.

18 (b) The bylaws of a cooperative may be adopted or amended by 19 the directors as provided by Subsection (c) or at a regular or 20 special members' meeting if:

21 (1) the notice of the meeting contains a statement 22 that the bylaws or restated bylaws will be voted on and copies are 23 included with the notice, or copies are available on request from 24 the cooperative and summary statement of each proposed bylaw or 25 amendment is included with the notice;

26 (2) a quorum is registered as being present or 27 represented by mail or alternative voting method if the mail or

1 alternative voting method is authorized by the board; and

2 (3) the bylaw or amendment is approved by a majority of 3 votes cast, or for a cooperative with articles of organization or 4 bylaws requiring more than majority approval or other conditions 5 for approval, the bylaw or amendment is approved when the 6 conditions for approval in the articles of organization or bylaws 7 are complied with.

8 (c) Until the next annual or special members' meeting, the 9 majority of directors may adopt and amend bylaws for the 10 cooperative that are consistent with Subsection (d) and that may be 11 additionally amended or repealed by the members at an annual or 12 special members' meeting.

13 (d) Bylaws may contain any provision relating to the 14 management or regulation of the affairs of the cooperative that is 15 not inconsistent with the laws of this state or the articles of 16 organization and must include:

17 (1) the number of directors and the qualifications, 18 manner of election, powers, duties, and compensation, if any, of 19 directors;

20 (2) the qualifications of members and any limitation 21 on their number;

22 (3) the manner of admission, withdrawal, suspension, 23 and expulsion of members; and 24 (4) the governance rights, financial rights, 25 assignability of governance or financial rights, and other rights, 26 privileges, and obligations of members and their membership 27 interests, which may be additionally described in a member control

1 agreement.

3 SUBCHAPTER F. MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS

4 Sec. 53.251. INTERESTS. (a) The authorized amount and 5 divisions of patron membership interests and nonpatron membership 6 interests may be increased or decreased or established or altered 7 in accordance with the restrictions in this chapter by amending the 8 articles of organization at a regular members' meeting or at a 9 special members' meeting called for the purpose of acting on the 10 amendment.

11 (b) Authorized membership interests may be issued on terms 12 prescribed in the articles of organization, bylaws, or as 13 determined by the board. The cooperative shall disclose to any 14 person or entity who acquires a membership interest issued by the 15 cooperative the organization, capital structure, and business 16 prospects and risks of the cooperative and the nature of the 17 governance and financial rights of the membership interest acquired 18 and of other classes of membership and membership interests. The 19 cooperative shall notify all members of the membership interests 20 being offered by the cooperative. A membership interest may not be 21 issued until the subscription price of the membership interest has 22 been paid in cash or a cash equivalent or property with the 23 agreed-on value.

24 (c) The patron membership interests collectively may have 25 at least 15 percent of the cooperative's financial rights to profit 26 allocations and distributions.

27 (d) After issuance by the cooperative, a membership

1 interest in a cooperative may be sold or transferred only with the 2 approval of the board.

3 (e) The cooperative may solicit and issue nonpatron
4 membership interests on terms determined by the board and disclosed
5 in the articles of organization, bylaws, or by separate disclosure
6 to the members. Each member acquiring a nonpatron membership 7 interest must sign a member control agreement that describes the 8 rights and obligations of the member as they relate to the nonpatron 9 membership interest, the financial and governance rights, the 10 transferability of the nonpatron membership interest, the division 11 and allocations of profits and losses among the membership 12 interests and membership classes, and financial rights on 13 liquidation. If the bylaws do not otherwise provide for the 14 allocation of the profits and losses between patron membership 15 interests and nonpatron membership interests, the allocation of 16 profits and losses among nonpatron membership interests 17 individually and patron membership interests collectively shall be 18 allocated on the basis of the value of contributions to capital made 19 according to the patron membership interests collectively and the 20 nonpatron membership interests individually to the extent the 21 contributions have been accepted by the cooperative. Distributions 22 of cash or other assets of the cooperative shall be allocated among 23 the membership interests as provided in the articles of 24 organization and bylaws, subject to the provisions of this chapter.
25 If not otherwise provided, distributions shall be made on the basis 26 of value of the capital contributions of the patron membership 27 interests collectively and the nonpatron membership interests to 1 the extent the contributions have been accepted by the cooperative.

2 (f) The bylaws may provide that the cooperative or the 3 patron members, individually or collectively, have the first 4 privilege to purchase the membership interest of any class of 5 patron member's membership interest offered for sale. The first 6 privilege to purchase a patron membership interest may be complied 7 with by notice to other patron members that the patron membership 8 interest is for sale and a procedure by which patron members may 9 proceed to attempt to purchase and acquire the patron membership
10 interest. A patron membership interest acquired by the cooperative 11 may be held to be reissued or may be retired and canceled.

12 (g) Subject to the bylaws, a member may dissent from and 13 obtain payment for the fair value of the member's nonpatron 14 membership interest in the cooperative if the articles of 15 organization or bylaws are amended in a manner that materially and 16 adversely affects the rights and preferences of the nonpatron
17 membership interest of the dissenting member. The dissenting 18 member must file a notice of intent to demand fair value of the 19 membership interest with the records officer of the cooperative 20 before the 30th day after the amendment of the bylaws and notice of 21 the amendment to members, or the right of the dissenting member to 22 demand payment of fair value for the membership interest is waived.
23 If a proposed amendment of the articles of organization or bylaws is 24 approved by the members, a member who is entitled to dissent and who 25 elects to exercise dissenter's rights must file a notice to demand 26 fair value of the membership interest with the records officer of 27 the cooperative before the vote on the proposed action and may not

1 vote in favor of the proposed action, or the right to demand fair 2 value for the membership interest by the dissenting member is 3 waived. After receipt of the dissenting member's demand notice and 4 approval of the amendment, the cooperative shall not later than the 5 60th day after the date of the approval of the amendment rescind the 6 amendment or remit the fair value for the one member's interest to 7 the dissenting member before the 180th day after the date the 8 cooperative received the notice. On receipt of the fair value for 9 the membership interest, the member has no further member rights in 10 the cooperative.

11 Sec. 53.252. ALLOCATIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO MEMBERS. (a) 12 The bylaws shall prescribe the allocation of profits and losses 13 between patron membership interests collectively and other 14 membership interests. If the bylaws do not otherwise provide, the 15 profits and losses between patron membership interests 16 collectively and other membership interests shall be allocated on 17 the basis of the value of contributions to capital made by the 18 patron membership interests collectively and other membership 19 interests and accepted by the cooperative. The allocation of 20 profits to the patron membership interests collectively may not be 21 less than 15 percent of the total profits in any fiscal year of the 22 cooperative.

23 (b) The bylaws shall prescribe the distribution of cash or 24 other assets of the cooperative among the membership interests of 25 the cooperative. If not otherwise provided in the bylaws, 26 distribution shall be made to the patron membership interests 27 collectively and other members on the basis of the value of 1 contributions to capital made and accepted by the cooperative by 2 the patron membership interests collectively and other membership 3 interests. The distributions to patron membership interests

4 collectively may not be less than 15 percent of the total 5 distributions in any fiscal year of the cooperative.

6 Sec. 53.253. ALLOCATIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO PATRON
7 MEMBERS. (a) The board of a cooperative may set aside a portion of 8 net income allocated to the patron membership interests to create 9 or maintain a capital reserve.

10 (b) In addition to a capital reserve, the board may, for 11 patron membership interests:

12 (1) set aside an amount not to exceed five percent of 13 the annual net income of the cooperative for promoting and 14 encouraging the cooperative; and 15 (2) establish and accumulate reserves for new 16 buildings, machinery and equipment, depreciation, losses, and 17 other proper purposes.

18 (c) Net income allocated to patron members that exceeds 19 dividends on equity and additions to reserves shall be distributed 20 to patron members on the basis of patronage. A cooperative may 21 establish allocation units, whether functional, divisional, 22 departmental, geographic, or otherwise, establish pooling
23 arrangements, and account for and distribute net income to patrons 24 on the basis of allocation units and pooling arrangements. A 25 cooperative may offset the net loss of an allocation unit or pooling 26 arrangement against the net income of other allocation units or 27 pooling arrangements.

1       (d) Distribution of net income shall be made at least 2 annually. The board shall present to the members at the annual 3 meeting a report covering the operations of the cooperative during 4 the preceding fiscal year of the organization.

5       (e) A cooperative may distribute net income to patron
6 members in cash, capital credits, allocated patronage equities, 7 revolving fund certificates, or its own or other securities.

8       (f) A cooperative may provide in its bylaws that nonmember
9 patrons are allowed to participate in the distribution of net
10 income payable to patron members on equal terms with patron
11 members.

12       (g) If a nonmember patron with patronage credits is not 13 qualified or eligible for membership, a refund owed may be credited 14 to the patron's individual account. The board may issue a 15 certificate of interest to reflect the credited amount. After the 16 patron is issued a certificate of interest, the patron may 17 participate in the distribution of income on the same basis as a 18 patron member.

20                               SUBCHAPTER G. MEMBERS

21       Sec. 53.301. GROUPING OF MEMBERS. (a) A cooperative may 22 group members and patron members in districts, units, or another 23 basis if and as authorized by its articles of organization and 24 bylaws, which may include authorization for the board to determine 25 the groupings.

26       (b) The board may do anything necessary to implement the use 27 of districts or units, including setting the time and place and

1 prescribing the rules of conduct for holding a meeting by a district 2 or unit to elect delegates to members' meetings.

3 Sec. 53.302. MEMBER VIOLATIONS; LIABILITY FOR COOPERATIVE
4 DEBTS. (a) A member who knowingly, intentionally, or repeatedly 5 violates a provision of the articles of organization, bylaws, 6 member control agreement, or marketing contract with the 7 cooperative may be required by the board to surrender the financial 8 right of membership interest of any class owned by the member.

9 (b) The cooperative shall refund to the member for the 10 surrendered financial right of membership interest the lesser of 11 the book value or market value of the financial right of the 12 membership interest payable in not more than seven years from the 13 date of surrender or transfer all of any patron member's financial 14 rights to a class of financial rights held by members who are not 15 patron members, or to a certificate of interest that carries 16 liquidation rights on par with a membership interest and is 17 redeemable within seven years after the transfer as provided in the 18 certificate.

19 (c) A membership interest required to be surrendered may be 20 reissued or retired and canceled by the board.

21 (d) A member who knowingly, intentionally, or repeatedly 22 violates a provision of the articles of organization, bylaws, 23 member control agreement, or marketing contract may be required by 24 the board to surrender the member's entitlement to vote in the 25 cooperative.

26 (e) A member is not, merely because of the member's status, 27 personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations

1 of a cooperative. A member is liable for any unpaid subscription 2 for the membership interest, unpaid membership fees, or debt for 3 which the member has separately contracted with the cooperative.

4 Sec. 53.303. REGULAR MEMBERS' MEETINGS. (a) Regular 5 members' meetings shall be held annually at a time determined by the 6 board, unless otherwise provided for in the bylaws.

7 (b) The regular members' meeting shall be held at the 8 principal place of business of the cooperative or at another 9 conveniently located place as determined by the bylaws or the 10 board.

11 (c) The officers shall submit reports to the members at the 12 regular members' meeting covering the business of the cooperative 13 for the previous fiscal year that show the condition of the 14 cooperative at the end of the fiscal year of the organization.

15 (d) Directors shall be elected at the regular members' 16 meeting for the terms of office prescribed in the bylaws, other than 17 directors elected at a district or unit meeting.

18 (e) The cooperative shall give notice of regular members' 19 meetings by mailing a notice to each member at the member's last 20 known mailing address or by other notification approved by the 21 board and agreed to by the members. Notice of a regular members' 22 meeting shall be published or otherwise given by an approved method 23 at least two weeks before the date of the meeting or mailed at least 24 15 days before the date of the meeting.

25 Sec. 53.304. SPECIAL MEMBERS' MEETINGS. (a) A special 26 members' meeting may be called by:

27 (1) a majority vote of the board; or

1           (2) a written petition submitted to the chair of at 2 least 20 percent of the patron members, 20 percent of the nonpatron 3 members, or 20 percent of all members collectively.

4           (b) The cooperative shall give notice of a special members' 5 meeting by mailing a notice to each member personally at the 6 person's last known mailing address or an alternative method 7 approved by the board and the member individually or the members 8 generally. For a member that is an entity, notice mailed or 9 delivered by an alternative method must be to an officer of the 10 entity. The notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the 11 special members' meeting. The notice shall be issued not later than 12 the 10th day after the date the members' petition is submitted and 13 the meeting held within 30 days after the date the members' petition 14 is submitted.

15           Sec. 53.305. CERTIFICATION OF MEETING NOTICE. (a) After 16 mailing or delivering of the special or regular members' meeting 17 notices, the chair or records officer shall execute a certificate 18 containing the date of mailing or delivery of the notices and a 19 statement that the notices were mailed or delivered as prescribed 20 by law.

21           (b) The certificate shall be made a part of the record of the 22 meeting.

23           Sec. 53.306. FAILURE TO RECEIVE MEETING NOTICE. Failure of 24 a member to receive notice of a special or regular members' meeting 25 does not invalidate an action taken by the members at the meeting.

26           Sec. 53.307. QUORUM. (a) The quorum for a members' meeting 27 is:

1           (1) 10 percent of the total number of members for a 2 cooperative with 500 or fewer members; or

3           (2) 50 members for a cooperative with more than 500 4 members.

5           (b) In determining a quorum at a meeting, on a question 6 submitted to a vote by mail or an alternative method, members 7 present in person or represented by mail vote or the alternative 8 voting method shall be counted. The attendance of a sufficient 9 number of members to establish a quorum shall be determined by a 10 registration of the members of the cooperative present at the 11 meeting. Registration shall be verified by the chair or the records 12 officer and reported in the minutes of the meeting.

13           (c) An action by a cooperative is invalid in the absence of a 14 quorum at the meeting at which the action was taken.

15           Sec. 53.308. MEMBER VOTING RIGHTS. (a) A patron member is 16 only entitled to one vote on an issue to be voted on by members who 17 hold a patron membership interest, except that a patron member of a 18 cooperative described by Section 53.309 may be entitled to more 19 than one vote as provided by that section. On any matter of the 20 cooperative, the entire patron members' voting power shall be voted 21 collectively based on the vote of the majority of patron members 22 voting on the issue. A nonpatron member has voting rights according 23 to the member's nonpatron membership interest granted in the 24 bylaws, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

25           (b) A member or delegate may exercise the member's voting 26 rights on any matter that is before the members as provided by the 27 articles of organization or bylaws at a members' meeting from the

1 time the member or delegate arrives at the members' meeting, unless 2 the articles of organization or bylaws specify an earlier and 3 specific time for the expiration of the member's right to vote.

4 (c) A member's vote at a members' meeting must be in person 5 or by mail if a mail vote is authorized by the board or by an 6 alternative method authorized by the board and not by proxy except 7 as provided by Subsection (d).

8 (d) A cooperative may provide in the articles of 9 organization or bylaws that a unit or district of members is 10 entitled to be represented at a members' meeting by delegates 11 chosen by the members of the unit or district. The delegates may 12 vote on matters at the members' meeting in the same manner as a 13 member. The delegates may only exercise the voting rights on a 14 basis of and with the number of votes as provided by the articles of 15 organization or bylaws. If the approval by a certain number of the 16 members is required for the adoption of amendments, a dissolution, 17 a merger, a conversion, or a sale of assets, the votes of delegates 18 shall be counted as votes by the members represented by the 19 delegate. Patron members may be represented by a delegate who is a 20 patron member. Nonpatron members may be represented by a delegate 21 if authorized in the bylaws.

22 (e) A member who is or will be absent from a members' meeting 23 may vote by mail or by an approved alternative method on any motion, 24 resolution, or amendment that the board submits for vote by mail or 25 alternative method to the members. A properly executed ballot 26 shall be accepted by the board and counted as the vote of the absent 27 member at the meeting.

1 (f) The ballot used for a vote under Subsection (e) must:

2 (1) be in the form prescribed by the board;

3 (2) contain the exact text of the proposed motion, 4 resolution, or amendment to be acted on at the meeting;

5 (3) contain the text of the motion, resolution, or 6 amendment for which the member may indicate an affirmative or 7 negative vote; and

8 (4) allow the member to express a choice by marking an 9 appropriate choice on the ballot and mailing, delivering, or 10 otherwise submitting the ballot to the cooperative in a plain, 11 sealed envelope inside another envelope bearing the member's name 12 or by an alternative method approved by the board.

13 Sec. 53.309. PATRON MEMBER VOTING IN COOPERATIVES 14 CONSTITUTED ENTIRELY OR PARTIALLY OF OTHER COOPERATIVES OR 15 ASSOCIATIONS. (a) The articles of organization or the bylaws of a 16 cooperative that is constituted wholly or partly of other 17 cooperatives or associations may authorize the patron members of a 18 subsidiary cooperative to have an additional vote for:

19 (1) a stipulated amount of business transacted between 20 the parent cooperative and the subsidiary cooperative to which the 21 patron member is a member;

22 (2) a stipulated number of patron members in the 23 subsidiary cooperative;

24 (3) a stipulated amount of equity allocated to or held 25 by the subsidiary cooperative in the parent cooperative; or

26 (4) a combination of the reasons in Subdivisions
27 (1)-(3).

1       (b) The articles of organization or the bylaws of a 2 cooperative that is organized into units or districts of patron
3 members may authorize the delegates elected by its patron members 4 to have an additional vote for:

5           (1) a stipulated amount of business transacted between 6 the patron members in the unit or district and the cooperative;

7           (2) a stipulated amount of equity allocated to or held 8 by the patron members of the units or districts of the cooperative; 9 or

10          (3) a combination of the reasons in Subdivisions (1)
11 and (2).

13                   SUBCHAPTER H. ADMINISTRATION

14           Sec. 53.351. GOVERNANCE. A cooperative is governed by its 15 board.

16           Sec. 53.352. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The board must have at 17 least three directors.

18           Sec. 53.353. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS. (a) Directors are 19 elected for the term, at the time, and in the manner provided by 20 this section and the bylaws. A majority of the directors must be 21 members, and at least one director must be elected exclusively by 22 the members holding patron membership interests. The voting 23 entitlement of the directors may be allocated according to 24 allocation units or equity classifications of the cooperative 25 provided that at least one-half of the voting power on general 26 matters of the cooperative must be allocated to one or more 27 directors elected by members holding a patron membership interest.

1       (b) Directors are elected for the terms of office prescribed
2 in the bylaws. Other than directors elected at a district meeting, 3 all directors are elected at the regular members' meeting.

4       (c) For a cooperative with districts or other units, members 5 may elect directors on a district or unit basis if provided for by 6 the bylaws. The directors may be nominated or elected at a district 7 meeting if authorized by the bylaws. Directors who are nominated at 8 district meetings are elected at the annual regular members' 9 meeting by vote of the entire membership unless the bylaws provide 10 that a director who is nominated at a district meeting is to be 11 elected by vote of the members of the district at the annual regular 12 members' meeting.

13       (d) A member must vote in person at a meeting for a director 14 unless an alternative method of voting is authorized for the 15 election of directors by the articles of organization or bylaws.

16       (e) If alternative voting for directors is authorized:

17               (1) the ballot must be in a form prescribed by the 18 board;

19               (2) a member shall mark the ballot for the candidate 20 chosen and mail the ballot to the cooperative in a sealed plain 21 envelope inside another envelope bearing the member's name, or 22 shall vote in the alternative manner prescribed by the board; and 23               (3) the ballot shall be accepted and counted as the 24 vote of the absent member if the ballot of the member is received by 25 the cooperative on or before the date of the regular members' 26 meeting.

27       (f) If a member is not a natural person and the bylaws do not

1 provide otherwise, the member may nominate one or more natural 2 persons for election to the board.

3 Sec. 53.354. FILLING VACANCIES. If a director who was 4 elected by patron members vacates the director's position, the 5 board shall appoint a patron member of the cooperative to fill the 6 vacancy until the next regular or special members' meeting. If the 7 vacating director was not a patron member, the board shall appoint a 8 patron member to fill the vacancy. At the next regular or special 9 members' meeting, the members or patron members shall elect a 10 director for the unexpired term of the vacant position.

11 Sec. 53.355. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. At a members' meeting
12 the class of members who elected a director may remove the director 13 for cause related to the duties of the position and fill the vacancy 14 caused by the removal.

15 Sec. 53.356. LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR'S LIABILITY. (a) 16 Except as provided by Subsection (b), a director's personal 17 liability to the cooperative or its members for monetary damages 18 for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director may be eliminated or 19 limited in the articles of organization.

20 (b) The articles of organization may not eliminate or limit 21 the liability of a director for:

22 (1) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the 23 cooperative or its members;

24 (2) an act or omission that is not in good faith, that 25 involves intentional misconduct, or that is a knowing violation of 26 law;

27 (3) a transaction from which the director derived an

1 improper personal benefit; or

2 (4) an act or omission occurring before the date when 3 the provision in the articles of organization eliminating or 4 limiting liability becomes effective.

5 Sec. 53.357. OFFICERS. (a) The board shall:

6 (1) elect a chair and one or more vice chairs; and

7 (2) elect or appoint a records officer and a financial 8 officer.

9 (b) The board may elect additional officers as the articles 10 of organization or bylaws authorize or require.

11 (c) The offices of records officer and financial officer may 12 be combined.

13 (d) The chair and first vice chair must be directors and 14 members. The financial officer, records officer, and other 15 officers are not required to be directors or members.

16 (e) The board may employ a chief executive officer to manage 17 the day-to-day affairs and business of the cooperative.

18 (f) At a members' meeting, members may remove an officer, 19 other than the chief executive officer, for cause related to the 20 duties of the position of the officer and fill the vacancy caused by 21 the removal.

22 Sec. 53.358. VOTE OF OWNERSHIP INTERESTS HELD BY 23 COOPERATIVE. A cooperative that holds an ownership interest in 24 another business entity may, by direction of the cooperative's 25 board, elect or appoint a person to represent the cooperative at a 26 meeting of that business entity. The representative may represent 27 the cooperative and cast the cooperative's vote at the business

1 entity's meeting.

2 [Sections 53.359-53.400 reserved for expansion]

3 SUBCHAPTER I. MERGER AND CONVERSION

4 Sec. 53.401. MERGER. (a) A cooperative may merge with one 5 or more cooperatives or other business entities as provided by this 6 subchapter.

7 (b) To initiate a merger, a written plan of merger must be 8 prepared by the board or by a committee selected by the board to 9 prepare a plan. The plan must contain:

10 (1) the name, organizational form, and jurisdiction of 11 formation of each of the constituent cooperatives and other 12 business entities;

13 (2) the name of each surviving or new cooperative or 14 other business entity that is created by the plan;

15 (3) the manner and basis of converting the membership
16 or ownership interests of the constituent cooperatives or business 17 entities into membership or ownership interests in the surviving or 18 new cooperative or business entity;

19 (4) the terms of the merger;

20 (5) the proposed effect of the merger on the members 21 and patron members of the cooperative;

22 (6) for a merger that creates a new cooperative or 23 business entity, the articles of organization or applicable
24 organizational documents of each entity to be filed with the state 25 in which the entity is organized; and 26 (7) any amendments made under the plan to the articles 27 of organization or organizational documents of a surviving

1 cooperative or business entity.

2 (c) If more than one business entity survives or is created 3 under the plan of merger, the plan must include, in addition to each 4 other requirement of this section:

5 (1) the manner and basis of allocating and vesting the 6 property of each entity that is a party to the merger among the 7 entities that survive or are created by the merger;

8 (2) the name of each surviving or new business entity 9 that is primarily obligated to pay the fair value of an interest of 10 an owner or member of a domestic business entity subject to 11 dissenters' rights that is a party to the merger, if the owner or 12 member complies with the requirements for dissent and appraisal 13 applicable to the entity; and

14 (3) the manner and basis of allocating each liability
15 and obligation of each business entity that is a party to the merger 16 to one or more of the surviving or new entities, or an alternative 17 arrangement that provides for the payment and discharge of each 18 liability and obligation.

19 Sec. 53.402. NOTICE. (a) The board shall mail a merger 20 plan or otherwise transmit or deliver notice to each member. The 21 notice must contain:

22 (1) the full text of the plan; and 23 (2) the time and place of the meeting at which the plan 24 will be considered.

25 (b) A cooperative with more than 200 members may provide the 26 merger notice in the same manner as the notice of a regular members' 27 meeting.

1       Sec. 53.403. ADOPTION OF MERGER PLAN. (a) A plan of merger
2 is adopted if:

3           (1) a quorum of the members is registered as being 4 present or represented by mail vote at the meeting; and

5           (2) the plan is approved by two-thirds of the votes
6 cast, or for a cooperative with articles of organization or bylaws 7 that require more than two-thirds of the votes cast or other 8 conditions for approval, as required by the articles of 9 organization or bylaws.

10          (b) After the plan has been adopted, articles of merger must 11 be filed with the secretary of state for the merger to take effect.

12          (c) The articles of merger must be signed by an officer or 13 other authorized representative on behalf of each cooperative and 14 each business entity that is a party to the merger and must include:

15           (1) the plan of merger or a certified statement
16 permitted by Section 10.151, Business Organizations Code;

17           (2) a statement that the plan of merger has been 18 approved as required by this chapter and the laws of the 19 jurisdiction of formation of each business entity; and 20           (3) a statement that the approval of the owners or 21 members of a business entity that is a party to the plan of merger is 22 not required under the laws of the entity's jurisdiction of 23 formation, if applicable.

24          (d) The articles of organization of each surviving 25 cooperative subject to this chapter are considered amended as 26 provided in the plan of merger.

27          (e) Except as otherwise provided by Section 53.101, the

1 merger is effective when the articles of merger are filed in the 2 office of the secretary of state.

3 (f) If the plan of merger creates a new cooperative, the 4 articles of organization must also be filed with the secretary of 5 state.

6 (g) If the plan of merger creates a new domestic business 7 entity to be formed or organized under the laws of this state and 8 the entity is required to file a certificate of formation, the 9 certificate of formation must also be filed with the secretary of 10 state.

11 Sec. 53.404. MERGER AUTHORIZED. (a) Notwithstanding any 12 other law of this state, an existing association incorporated under 13 this code may merge with a cooperative governed by this chapter by 14 adopting and approving a plan of merger in the same manner as a 15 cooperative governed by this chapter.

16 (b) Notwithstanding any other law of this state, an existing 17 association organized under a law of this state, other than an 18 association organized under this code, may merge with a cooperative 19 governed by this chapter by adopting and approving a plan of merger 20 in the manner prescribed by the law governing the association, or if 21 the law governing the association does not provide a method, in the 22 same manner as a cooperative governed by this chapter.

23 Sec. 53.405. EFFECT OF MERGER. (a) When a merger takes 24 effect:

25 (1) the separate existence of each domestic business 26 entity that is a party to the merger, other than a surviving or new 27 business entity, ceases;

1           (2) all rights, title, and interests to all real 2 property and other property owned by each entity that is a party to 3 the merger is allocated to and vested, subject to any existing lien 4 or other encumbrance on the property, in one or more of the 5 surviving or new business entities as provided in the plan of merger 6 without:

7                   (A) reversion or impairment;

8                   (B) any further act or deed; or

9                   (C) any transfer or assignment having occurred;

10           (3) all liabilities and obligations of each entity 11 that is a party to the merger are allocated to one or more of the 12 surviving or new entities in the manner provided by the plan of 13 merger;

14           (4) each surviving or new domestic business entity to 15 which a liability or obligation is allocated under the plan of 16 merger is the primary obligor for the liability or obligation, and, 17 except as otherwise provided by the plan of merger or by law or 18 contract, no other party to the merger, other than a surviving 19 domestic business entity liable or otherwise obligated at the time 20 of the merger, and no other new domestic business entity created 21 under the plan of merger is liable for the liability or obligation;

22           (5) a proceeding pending by or against a cooperative 23 or another business entity that is a party to the merger may be 24 continued as if the merger did not occur, or the surviving or new 25 cooperative or business entity to which the matter involved in the 26 proceeding is allocated under the plan of merger may be substituted 27 in the proceeding;

1           (6) the articles of organization and bylaws of each 2 surviving cooperative and the organizational documents and other 3 governing documents of each surviving business entity shall be 4 amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger;

5           (7) each new cooperative, the articles of organization 6 of which are included in the plan of merger under Section 53.403, is 7 formed as a cooperative under this chapter;

8           (8) each new business entity to be formed or organized 9 under the laws of this state the organizational documents of which 10 are included in the plan of merger is formed when an executed copy 11 of the articles of merger is delivered to or filed with the 12 governmental entity to which the organizational documents of the 13 business entity are required to be delivered or filed and when any 14 other requirements of law for formation are complied with;

15           (9) the ownership or membership interests of each 16 cooperative and business entity that is a party to the merger that 17 are to be converted or exchanged, in whole or in part, into 18 ownership or membership interests, obligations, rights to purchase 19 securities, or other securities of one or more of the surviving or 20 new entities, into cash or other property, including ownership or 21 membership interests, obligations, rights to purchase securities, 22 or other securities of any entity, or into any combination of these 23 are converted and exchanged and the former owners or members who 24 held ownership or membership interests of each cooperative and 25 domestic business entity that is a party to the merger are entitled 26 only to the rights provided by the plan of merger or, if applicable, 27 any rights to receive the fair value for the ownership interests

1 provided by other state law; and

2 (10) notwithstanding Subdivision (4), the surviving 3 or new entity named in the plan of merger as primarily obligated to 4 pay the fair value of an ownership or membership interest under 5 Section 53.401(c) is the primary obligor for that payment and all 6 other surviving or new entities are secondarily liable for that 7 payment.

8 (b) If the plan of merger does not provide for the 9 allocation and vesting of the right, title, and interest in any 10 particular property, each surviving and new cooperative or business 11 entity that is a party to the merger owns an undivided interest in 12 the property pro rata to the total number of surviving and new 13 cooperatives and business entities resulting from the merger. If 14 the plan of merger does not provide for the allocation of a 15 liability or obligation of a party to the merger, each surviving or 16 new cooperative or business entity that is a party to the merger is 17 jointly and severally liable for the liability or obligation.

18 (c) The right of a creditor may not be impaired by a merger 19 without the creditor's consent.

20 (d) If a surviving entity in a merger is not a cooperative or 21 domestic business entity, the surviving entity is considered to 22 have:

23 (1) appointed the secretary of state as the entity's 24 agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce any 25 obligation of a cooperative or domestic business entity that is a 26 party to the merger; and

27 (2) agreed to promptly pay any dissenting owners or

1 members of each cooperative or domestic business entity that is a 2 party to the merger who have the right of dissent and appraisal
3 under state law any amount to which the dissenting owners or members 4 are entitled under the law governing the formation of the entity.

5 (e) If the surviving entity in a merger is not a cooperative 6 or domestic business entity, the entity must register to transact 7 business in this state if the entity is required to register for 8 that purpose by another law of this state.

9 Sec. 53.406. CONVERSION TO OTHER FORM OF BUSINESS ENTITY.

10 (a) A cooperative may convert to another form of business entity by 11 adopting and approving a plan of conversion.

12 (b) To initiate a conversion, the board or a committee 13 selected by the board must prepare a written plan of conversion.

14 The plan must include:

15 (1) the name of the cooperative that is the converting 16 entity;

17 (2) the name, organizational form, and jurisdiction of 18 formation of the converted entity;

19 (3) a statement that the converting entity is 20 continuing its existence in the organizational form of the 21 converted entity;

22 (4) the manner and basis of converting the membership
23 interests of the cooperative into membership or ownership interests 24 in the converted entity;

25 (5) the terms of the conversion;

26 (6) the proposed effect of the conversion on the 27 members and patron members of the cooperative; and

1           (7) if the converted entity is a domestic business
2 entity, any certificate of formation or similar organizational 3 document that is required by law to form the entity.

4           (c) A plan of conversion may include other provisions
5 relating to the conversion allowed by law.

6           (d) After approval of the plan of conversion, a certificate 7 of conversion must be filed with the secretary of state for the 8 conversion to take effect. The certificate of conversion must 9 include:

10           (1) the plan of conversion, or a statement certifying:

11                   (A) the name of the cooperative that is the 12 converting entity;

13                   (B) the name, entity type, and jurisdiction of 14 organization of the business entity that is the converted entity;

15                   (C) that the converting entity is continuing its 16 existence in the organizational form of the converted entity;

17                   (D) that a signed plan of conversion is on file at 18 the principal place of business of the converting entity and 19 certifying the address of the principal place of business;

20                   (E) that a signed plan of conversion will be on 21 file at the principal place of business of the converted entity and 22 certifying the address of the principal place of business; and

23                   (F) that a copy of the plan of conversion will be 24 furnished, without cost, on written request to any owner or member 25 of the converting entity or the converted entity by:

26                           (i) the converting entity before the 27 conversion; or

1                   (ii) the converted entity after the 2 conversion;

3                   (2) a statement that the plan of conversion has been 4 approved as required by this section, by the law governing the 5 converting entity, and by the governing documents of the converting 6 entity; and

7                   (3) if the converted entity is a domestic business
8 entity, any certificate of formation or organizational document 9 required to form the entity under a law of this state.

10                  (e) When a conversion takes effect, each member of the 11 converting entity has a membership or ownership interest in the 12 converted entity. This subsection does not apply to a member who 13 agrees to an alternative disposition of the person's interest under 14 the conversion.

15                  (f) A cooperative may not convert under this section if, as 16 a result of the conversion, a member of the converting entity would 17 become personally liable for a liability or other obligation of the 18 converted entity without that person's consent.

19                  (g) When the conversion takes effect:

20                   (1) the converting entity continues to exist without 21 interruption in the organizational form of the converted entity 22 rather than in the organizational form of the entity before the 23 conversion;

24                   (2) all rights, title, and interests to all property 25 owned by the converting entity continues to be owned, subject to any 26 existing lien or other encumbrance on the property, by the entity as 27 converted without:

1           (A) reversion or impairment;

2           (B) further act or deed; or

3           (C) any transfer or assignment having occurred;

4           (3) all liabilities and obligations of the converting 5 entity continue to be liabilities and obligations of the converted 6 entity in its new organizational form without impairment or 7 diminution because of the conversion;

8           (4) the rights of creditors or other parties with 9 respect to or against the previous members of the converting entity
10 in their capacities as members continue to exist and may be enforced
11 by the creditors and obligees as if the conversion had not occurred;

12           (5) a proceeding pending by or against the converting 13 entity or by or against any of the converting entity's members in 14 their capacities as members may be continued by or against the 15 converted entity and by or against the previous members without 16 substituting a party;

17           (6) the membership interests of the converting entity 18 are converted into ownership or membership interests of the 19 converted entity as provided in the plan of conversion, and the 20 former members of the converting entity are entitled only to the 21 rights provided in the plan of conversion or under a right of 22 dissent and appraisal as provided by law; and

23           (7) if a member of the converted entity is liable after 24 the conversion takes effect for the liabilities or obligations of 25 the converted entity in the person's capacity as a member, the 26 person is liable for the liabilities and obligations of the 27 converting entity that existed before the conversion took effect

1 only to the extent that the person:

2 (A) agrees in writing to be liable for the
3 liabilities or obligations;

4 (B) was liable before the conversion took effect 5 for the liabilities or obligations; or

6 (C) becomes liable under other applicable law for 7 the existing liabilities and obligations of the converted entity as 8 a result of becoming an owner or member of the converted entity.

9 Sec. 53.407. ABANDONMENT OF MERGER OR CONVERSION. (a) At 10 any time after a plan of merger or plan of conversion is approved as 11 provided by this chapter and before the merger or conversion takes 12 effect, a cooperative or domestic business entity that is a party to 13 the plan may abandon the plan, without action by the owners or 14 members, under the procedures provided by the plan of merger or plan 15 of conversion. A cooperative or domestic business entity's right 16 to abandon a plan of merger or plan of conversion is subject to the 17 contractual rights of any party to the merger or conversion.

18 (b) If the plan of merger or plan of conversion does not 19 provide procedures for abandonment, the board of directors or 20 governing authority of the parties to the plan may determine the 21 procedures for abandonment.

22 (c) If articles of merger or a certificate of conversion has 23 been filed, the merger or conversion may be abandoned before its 24 effectiveness in accordance with Section 53.102.

26 SUBCHAPTER J. LIQUIDATION

27 Sec. 53.451. LIQUIDATION. (a) A cooperative may be

1 liquidated as provided in the articles of organization in a manner 2 consistent with other business entities formed or organized in this 3 state or, if not provided, may be liquidated in the same manner as a 4 limited liability company formed or organized in this state.

5 (b) In addition to the methods in Subsection (a), the 6 members may authorize a liquidation by adopting a resolution at a 7 members' meeting. The notice of the members' meeting shall include 8 a statement that the disposition of all of the assets of the 9 cooperative will be considered at the meeting. If a quorum is 10 present in person, by mail ballot, or alternative method approved 11 by the board at the members' meeting, the resolution approving of 12 the liquidation is adopted if:

13 (1) approved by two-thirds of the votes cast; or

14 (2) for a cooperative with articles of organization or 15 bylaws requiring more than two-thirds for approval or other 16 conditions for approval, the conditions for approval in the 17 articles of organization or bylaws are complied with.

18 (c) The board of directors by resolution may liquidate a 19 cooperative if the board obtains an opinion of an accountant that 20 the cooperative is unlikely to continue as a business, based on its 21 current finances.

23 SUBCHAPTER K. DISSOLUTION

24 Sec. 53.501. METHODS OF DISSOLUTION. A cooperative may be 25 dissolved by the members or by the order of a court.

26 Sec. 53.502. WINDING UP. (a) After a notice of intent to 27 dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state, the board or

1 the officers acting under the direction of the board shall proceed 2 as soon as possible to:

3 (1) collect or make provision for the collection of 4 all debts due or owing to the cooperative, including unpaid 5 subscriptions for shares; and

6 (2) pay or make provision for the payment of all debts, 7 obligations, and liabilities of the cooperative according to their 8 priorities.

9 (b) After a notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with 10 the secretary of state, the board may sell, lease, transfer, or 11 otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the property and 12 assets of the cooperative without a vote of the members.

13 (c) Tangible and intangible property, including money, 14 remaining after the discharge of the debts, obligations, and 15 liabilities of the cooperative may be distributed to the members 16 and former members as provided in the bylaws. If previously 17 authorized by the members, the tangible and intangible property of 18 the cooperative may be liquidated and disposed of at the discretion 19 of the board.

20 Sec. 53.503. REVOCATION OF DISSOLUTION PROCEEDINGS. (a) 21 Dissolution proceedings may be revoked before the articles of 22 dissolution are filed with the secretary of state.

23 (b) The chair may call a members' meeting to determine 24 whether to revoke the dissolution proceedings. The question of the 25 proposed revocation shall be submitted to the members at the 26 members' meeting called to consider the revocation. The 27 dissolution proceedings are revoked if the revocation is approved

1 at the members' meeting by a majority of the members of the 2 cooperative, or for a cooperative with articles of organization or 3 bylaws requiring a greater number of members, the number of members 4 required by the articles of organization or bylaws.

5 (c) Revocation of the dissolution proceedings is effective 6 when a notice of revocation is filed with the secretary of state.
7 After the notice is filed, the cooperative may resume business.

8 Sec. 53.504. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. The claim of a 9 creditor or claimant against a dissolving cooperative is barred if 10 the claim has not been enforced by legal, administrative, or 11 arbitration proceedings relating to the claim initiated not later 12 than two years after the date the notice of intent to dissolve is 13 filed with the secretary of state.

14 Sec. 53.505. ARTICLES OF DISSOLUTION. (a) Articles of 15 dissolution of a cooperative may be filed with the secretary of 16 state only after payment of the claims of all known creditors and 17 claimants has been made or provided for and the remaining property 18 distributed by the board. The articles of dissolution must state 19 that:

20 (1) all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the 21 cooperative have been paid or discharged or adequate provisions 22 have been made for them or time periods allowing claims have run and 23 other claims are not outstanding;

24 (2) the remaining property, assets, and claims of the 25 cooperative have been distributed among the members or under a 26 liquidation authorized by the members; and

27 (3) legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings

1 by or against the cooperative are not pending or that adequate 2 provision has been made for the satisfaction of a judgment, order, 3 or decree that may be entered against the cooperative in any pending 4 proceeding.

5 (b) The cooperative is dissolved when the articles of 6 dissolution are filed with the secretary of state.

7 (c) The secretary of state shall issue to the dissolved 8 cooperative or its legal representative a certificate of 9 dissolution that contains:

10 (1) the name of the dissolved cooperative;

11 (2) the date the articles of dissolution were filed 12 with the secretary of state; and 13 (3) a statement that the cooperative is dissolved.

14 Sec. 53.506. APPLICATION FOR COURT-SUPERVISED VOLUNTARY 15 DISSOLUTION. After a notice of intent to dissolve is filed with the 16 secretary of state and before a certificate of dissolution is 17 issued, the cooperative, or, for good cause shown, a member or 18 creditor, may apply to a district court for the county in which the 19 registered address is located to have the dissolution conducted or 20 continued under the supervision of the court as provided by Section 21 53.513.

22 Sec. 53.507. COURT-ORDERED REMEDIES OR DISSOLUTION. (a) A 23 district court may grant equitable relief that it considers just 24 and reasonable in the circumstances or may dissolve a cooperative 25 and liquidate its assets and business:

26 (1) in a supervised voluntary dissolution that is 27 applied for by the cooperative;

1           (2) in an action brought by a member if it is 2 established that:

3           (A) the directors or the persons having the 4 authority otherwise vested in the board are deadlocked in the 5 management of the cooperative's affairs and the members are unable 6 to break the deadlock;

7           (B) the directors or those in control of the 8 cooperative in their capacities as members, directors, or officers 9 have acted fraudulently, illegally, or in a manner unfairly 10 prejudicial toward one or more members;

11           (C) the members of the cooperative are so divided 12 in voting power that, for a period that includes the time when two 13 consecutive regular members' meetings were held, they have failed 14 to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would 15 have expired on the election and qualification of their successors;

16           (D) the cooperative assets are being misapplied 17 or wasted; or

18           (E) the period of duration as provided in the 19 articles of organization has expired and has not been extended as 20 provided in this chapter;

21           (3) in an action by a creditor when:

22           (A) the claim of the creditor against the 23 cooperative has been reduced to judgment and an execution on the 24 judgment has been returned unsatisfied; or

25           (B) the cooperative has admitted in writing that 26 the claim of the creditor against the cooperative is due and payable 27 and it is established that the cooperative is unable to pay its

1 debts in the ordinary course of business; or

2 (4) in an action by the attorney general to dissolve
3 the cooperative under this chapter if it is established that a 4 decree of dissolution is appropriate.

5 (b) In determining whether to order equitable relief or 6 dissolution, the court shall take into consideration the financial 7 condition of the cooperative but may not refuse to order equitable 8 relief or dissolution solely on the ground that the cooperative has 9 accumulated operating net income or current operating net income.

10 (c) In deciding whether to order dissolution of the 11 cooperative, the court shall consider whether lesser relief 12 suggested by one or more parties, such as a form of equitable relief 13 or a partial liquidation, would be adequate to permanently relieve 14 the circumstances established under Subsection (a)(2)(B) or (C).
15 Lesser relief may be ordered if it would be appropriate under the 16 facts and circumstances of the case.

17 (d) If the court finds that a party to a proceeding brought 18 under this section has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise 19 not in good faith, the court in its discretion may award reasonable 20 expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, to any of 21 the other parties.

22 (e) Proceedings under this section must be brought in a 23 district court for the county in which the registered address of the 24 cooperative is located.

25 (f) Members are not necessary parties to the action or 26 proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally.

27 Sec. 53.508. PROCEDURE IN INVOLUNTARY OR COURT-SUPERVISED

1 VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION. (a) In dissolution proceedings, before a 2 hearing is completed the court may:

3 (1) issue an injunction;

4 (2) appoint a receiver with all powers and duties that 5 the court directs; and

6 (3) take action required to preserve the cooperative's 7 assets wherever located and to carry on the business of the 8 cooperative.

9 (b) After a hearing is completed, on notice directed to be 10 given to the parties to the proceedings and to other parties in 11 interest designated by the court, the court may appoint a receiver 12 to collect the cooperative's assets, including an amount owed to 13 the cooperative by a subscriber on account of an unpaid portion of 14 the consideration for the issuance of shares. The receiver may, 15 subject to the order of the court, continue the business of the 16 cooperative and sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the 17 property and assets of the cooperative at either a public or private 18 sale.

19 (c) The assets of the cooperative or the proceeds resulting 20 from a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition shall be applied 21 in the following order of priority:

22 (1) the costs and expenses of the proceedings, 23 including attorney's fees and disbursements;

24 (2) debts, taxes, and assessments due the United 25 States, this state, and other states, in that order;

26 (3) claims proved and allowed to employees under the 27 provisions of the workers' compensation law, except that claims

1 under this subdivision may not be allowed if the cooperative 2 carried workers' compensation insurance at the time the injury was 3 sustained;

4 (4) claims, including the value of all compensation
5 paid in a medium other than money, proved and allowed to employees 6 for any services performed within the three months before the date 7 the receiver was appointed; and 8 (5) other claims proved and allowed.

9 (d) After payment of the expenses of receivership and claims 10 of creditors are proved, any remaining assets may be distributed to 11 the members or distributed under an approved liquidation plan.

12 Sec. 53.509. RECEIVER QUALIFICATIONS AND POWERS. (a) A 13 receiver must be a natural person or a domestic or foreign 14 corporation authorized to transact business in this state. A 15 receiver shall give a bond as directed by the court with the 16 sureties required by the court.

17 (b) A receiver may sue and defend in all courts as receiver 18 of the cooperative. The court appointing the receiver has 19 exclusive jurisdiction of the cooperative and its property.

20 Sec. 53.510. DISSOLUTION ACTION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL;
21 ADMINISTRATIVE DISSOLUTION. (a) A cooperative may be dissolved 22 involuntarily by order of a court in this state in an action filed 23 by the attorney general if it is established that:

24 (1) the articles and certificate of organization were 25 procured through fraud;

26 (2) the cooperative was organized for a purpose not 27 permitted by this chapter or prohibited by state law;

1           (3) the cooperative has flagrantly violated a 2 provision of this chapter, violated a provision of this chapter 3 more than once, or violated more than one provision of this chapter; 4 or

5           (4) the cooperative has acted or failed to act in a 6 manner that constitutes a surrender or abandonment of the 7 cooperative's franchise, privileges, or enterprise.

8           (b) An action may not be brought under Subsection (a) before 9 the 31st day after the date notice is given to the cooperative by 10 the attorney general of the reason for filing the action. If the 11 reason for filing the action is an act or omission of the 12 cooperative and the act or omission may be corrected by an amendment 13 of the articles of organization or bylaws or by performance of or 14 abstention from the act, the attorney general may file the action 15 only if the cooperative fails to make the correction before the 31st 16 day after notice is given to the cooperative by the attorney 17 general.

18           Sec. 53.511. FILING CLAIMS IN COURT-SUPERVISED DISSOLUTION 19 PROCEEDINGS. (a) In a proceeding to dissolve a cooperative, the 20 court may require a creditor or claimant of the cooperative to file 21 a claim made under oath with the court administrator or with the 22 receiver in a form prescribed by the court.

23           (b) If the court requires the filing of claims, the court 24 shall:

25           (1) set a date, by order, at least 120 days after the 26 date the order is filed, as the last day for filing claims; and

27           (2) prescribe the form of a notice of the date set to 1 be given to creditors and claimants.

2 (c) Before the date set by the court, the court may extend 3 the time for filing claims. A creditor or claimant who fails to file 4 a claim on or before the date may be barred by order of the court 5 from claiming an interest in or receiving payment from the property 6 or assets of the cooperative.

7 Sec. 53.512. DISCONTINUANCE OF COURT-SUPERVISED
8 DISSOLUTION PROCEEDINGS. The involuntary or supervised voluntary 9 dissolution of a cooperative may be discontinued at any time during 10 the dissolution proceedings if it is established that cause for 11 dissolution does not exist. The court shall dismiss the 12 proceedings and direct the receiver, if any, to redeliver to the 13 cooperative its remaining property and assets.

14 Sec. 53.513. COURT-SUPERVISED DISSOLUTION ORDER. (a) In 15 an involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution, the court shall 16 enter an order dissolving the cooperative after the costs and 17 expenses of the proceedings and all debts, obligations, and 18 liabilities of the cooperative have been paid or discharged and the 19 remaining property and assets have been distributed to its members 20 or, if its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and 21 discharge the costs, expenses, debts, obligations, and 22 liabilities, when all the property and assets have been applied to 23 their payment according to their priorities.

24 (b) When the court enters the order dissolving the 25 cooperative or association, the cooperative or association is 26 dissolved.

27 Sec. 53.514. FILING OF DISSOLUTION ORDER. After the court

1 enters an order dissolving a cooperative, the court administrator
2 shall cause a certified copy of the dissolution order to be filed 3 with the secretary of state. The secretary of state may not charge 4 a fee for filing the dissolution order.

5 Sec. 53.515. BARRING OF CLAIMS. (a) A person who is or 6 becomes a creditor or claimant before, during, or after the 7 conclusion of dissolution proceedings, who does not file a claim or 8 pursue a remedy in a legal, administrative, or arbitration 9 proceeding during the pendency of the dissolution proceeding, or 10 who does not initiate a legal, administrative, or arbitration 11 proceeding before the dissolution proceedings commenced and all 12 those claiming through or under the creditor or claimant are 13 forever barred from suing on that claim or otherwise realizing upon 14 or enforcing it, except as provided by this section.

15 (b) Not later than the first anniversary of the date the 16 articles of dissolution are filed with the secretary of state or a 17 dissolution order is entered, a creditor or claimant who shows good 18 cause for not having previously filed the claim may apply to a court 19 in this state to allow a claim:

20 (1) against the cooperative to the extent of 21 undistributed assets; or

22 (2) if the undistributed assets are not sufficient to 23 satisfy the claim, against a member up to the amount distributed to 24 the member.

25 (c) A debt, obligation, or liability incurred during the 26 dissolution proceedings shall be paid or provided for by the 27 cooperative before the distribution of assets to a member. A person

1 to whom such a debt, obligation, or liability is owed but not paid 2 may pursue any remedy against the officers, directors, or members 3 of the cooperative before the expiration of the applicable statute
4 of limitations. This subsection does not apply to dissolution
5 under the supervision or order of a court.

6 Sec. 53.516. RIGHT TO SUE OR DEFEND AFTER DISSOLUTION.
7 After a cooperative has been dissolved, any of its former officers, 8 directors, or members may assert or defend, in the name of the 9 cooperative, a claim by or against the cooperative.

10 SECTION 2. This Act takes effect September 1, 2007.
