CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The Texas Legislative Medal of Honor was established
2 to honor gallant and intrepid service by a member of the state
3 military forces of Texas, and through his courageous actions in 4 Vietnam, Sergeant Alfredo "Freddy" Gonzalez distinguished himself 5 as a worthy recipient of this prestigious honor; and

6 WHEREAS, Born May 23, 1946, in Edinburg and a graduate of 7 Edinburg High School, Sergeant Gonzalez enlisted in the U.S. Marine 8 Corps in May 1965; after his first tour of duty in Vietnam, he was 9 chosen to train new marines for guerilla warfare; and

10 WHEREAS, A few months later, Sergeant Gonzalez learned of an 11 ambush in which men who had served under him had been killed; 12 impelled by a strong sense of duty to his fellow marines and to his 13 country, he volunteered for a second tour in Vietnam; and

14 WHEREAS, When, at the end of January 1968, North Vietnamese
15 and Viet Cong troops launched the massive Tet Offensive, Sergeant
16 Gonzalez and his platoon were ordered to Hue to relieve the pressure
17 on that city; en route to Hue, the platoon's convoy was hit by heavy
18 fire on several occasions; during one such encounter, Sergeant
19 Gonzalez saw an injured marine lying in the road ahead and ran 20 through enemy fire to carry the man to cover, receiving 21 fragmentation wounds in the rescue; and

22 WHEREAS, With the column halted by withering fire from a
23 fortified machine-gun bunker, Sergeant Gonzalez proceeded to guide 24 his men to a protective dike; he then moved out onto a road being

1 raked by the gun and destroyed the bunker with hand grenades; later, 2 on February 3, Sergeant Gonzalez was seriously wounded but 3 continued to refuse medical treatment and to lead his men in their 4 attack; and

5 WHEREAS, During fighting in Hue on February 4, his platoon of 6 some 35 troops was again pinned down by a ferocious barrage; telling 7 his unit to stay behind shelter, Sergeant Gonzalez moved forward
8 aggressively with hand grenades and small antitank rockets, firing 9 numerous rounds against enemy emplacements; and

10 WHEREAS, Entering a church, where the North Vietnamese were 11 heavily fortified, he succeeded in suppressing virtually all of 12 their fire; before the last of it could be silenced, however, he was 13 mortally wounded; and

14 WHEREAS, Because he succeeded in destroying so many North
15 Vietnamese positions, Sergeant Gonzalez was credited with saving 16 the lives of the men in his platoon; the following year, in 17 consequence of his extraordinary and selfless action, he was 18 posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor, becoming the only marine 19 in combat during the Tet Offensive to receive that award; and

20 WHEREAS, For those with whom he served, the heroism displayed
21 by Sergeant Gonzalez was completely in character; "it seemed like 22 he was everywhere all the time," one remembered; "he was always 23 there in the front, never in the back . . . he was always there for 24 us"; and
