

By: Hughes

H.C.R. No. 189

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Proud residents of Upshur County are gathering in 2 Austin for Upshur County Day at the State Capitol on April 10, 2007;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, This wooded, rolling region of East Texas was first 5 inhabited by the Caddo people; during the early 19th century the 6 Cherokee passed through the area on the Cherokee Trace, and the 7 first Anglo inhabitant, Isaac Moody, settled near West Mountain in 8 1836; and

9 WHEREAS, The 1st Texas Legislature established Upshur County
10 on April 27, 1846; the county was named after Abel P. Upshur, 11 secretary of state under President John Tyler; Gilmer was 12 established as the county seat in 1848; and

13 WHEREAS, Corn, cotton, and cattle were the foundations of the 14 county's economy, while the region's virgin forest made it an 15 important center for the lumber industry; the arrival of the 16 railroad in the 1870s linked the area to national markets and drew 17 in more residents; and

18 WHEREAS, Today the county is a leading producer of broiler
19 chickens and dairy products; the reseeded of the forests between 20 the end of World War II and the 1980s has helped to maintain the 21 county's primacy as a lumber producer, and ceramics and vegetable 22 processing have also become important industries; and

23 WHEREAS, Gilmer is the site of the East Texas Yamboree, one of 24 the oldest continuing festivals in East Texas; first held in 1935,

1 this celebration of the sweet potato draws 100,000 visitors every 2 October with a parade, cooking contests, live music, livestock
3 exhibits, and an antique and classic car show; and

4 WHEREAS, Visitors and residents alike enjoy the fine
5 recreational opportunities offered by the county; Lake Gladewater 6 is popular with boaters, fishermen, swimmers, and picnickers, and 7 the county's wide variety of game, including deer, squirrels, 8 quail, and dove, make it a destination for hunters; and

9 WHEREAS, With its scenic beauty, abundant natural resources,
10 and lively cultural traditions, Upshur County celebrates its rich 11 history while looking forward to a bright future, and it is 12 appropriate to celebrate the past, present, and future of this 13 unique region of the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it

14 RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas
15 hereby recognize April 10, 2007, as Upshur County Day at the State 16 Capitol and extend best wishes to the visiting delegation for an 17 informative and enjoyable stay in Austin.