1-6 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

1-7 post-ratifying Amendment XXIV to the Constitution of the United 1-8 States prohibiting the denial or abridgment of the right to vote for
1-9 failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

1-10 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

1-11 SECTION 1. The 87th Congress of the United States on August
1-12 27, 1962, in the form of Senate Joint Resolution No. 29, proposed to 1-13 the legislatures of the several states an amendment to the 1-14 Constitution of the United States, and by a proclamation dated
1-15 February 4, 1964, published at 29 Federal Register 1715-16 and at 78
1-16 Statutes at Large 1117-18, the Administrator of General Services,
1-17 Bernard L. Boutin--in the presence of native Texan, President
1-18 Lyndon Baines Johnson--declared the amendment to have been ratified 1-19 by the legislatures of 38 of the 50 states, thereby becoming 1-20 Amendment XXIV to the United States Constitution pursuant to 1-21 Article V thereof, as follows:

1-22 "AMENDMENT XXIV.

1-23 "SECTION 1. The right of citizens of the United 1-24 States to vote in any primary or other election for 1-25 President or Vice President, for electors for 1-26 President or Vice President, or for Senator or 1-27 Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or 1-28 abridged by the United States or any State by reason of
1-29 failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

1-30 "SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce 1-31 this article by appropriate legislation."

1-32 SECTION 2. While the congress was still deliberating on the 1-33 poll tax amendment in August of 1962, President John Fitzgerald
1-34 Kennedy urged the United States House of Representatives to propose
1-35 the amendment for the consideration of the state legislatures
1-36 ". . . to finally eliminate this outmoded and arbitrary bar to 1-37 voting. American citizens should not have to pay to vote." And in 1-38 witnessing the issuance of Amendment XXIV's certificate of validity
1-39 17 months later, President Johnson noted that abolishing the tax
1-40 requirement ". . . reaffirmed the simple but unbreakable theme of 1-41 this Republic. Nothing is so valuable as liberty, and nothing is so 1-42 necessary to liberty as the freedom to vote without bans or 1-43 barriers. ****A change in our Constitution is a serious event.****
1-44 There can now be no one too poor to vote."

1-45 SECTION 3. Although Amendment XXIV has been the law of the 1-46 land since 1964, some 13 years following its effective date, it
1-47 received symbolic post-ratification in 1977 from the General
1-48 Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as reflected in the 1-49 Congressional Record of March 28, 1977, which printed the full text
1-50 of Virginia's post-ratification; 12 years after that, the amendment
1-51 received ceremonial post-ratification in 1989 from the General
1-52 Assembly of the State of North Carolina, as reflected in the 1-53 Congressional Record of June 6, 1989, which printed the full text of 1-54 North Carolina's post-ratification; and nearly 13 years after that,
1-55 the amendment received its most recent post-ratification in 2002
1-56 from the Legislature of the State of Alabama, as reflected in the 1-57 Congressional Record of September 26, 2002, which printed the full 1-58 text of Alabama's post-ratification.

1-59 SECTION 4. The Legislature of the State of Texas--one of 1-60 only five states still levying a poll tax by 1964--has never 1-61 approved Amendment XXIV to the Constitution of the United States,
1-62 but precedent makes clear the opportunity of this state to 1-63 post-ratify the amendment in a manner similar to the actions of 1-64 lawmakers in Alabama, North Carolina, and Virginia.

2-1 SECTION 5. The Legislature of the State of Texas hereby 2-2 post-ratifies Amendment XXIV to the Constitution of the United 2-3 States.

2-4 SECTION 6. The Texas secretary of state shall notify the 2-5 archivist of the United States of the action of the 80th Legislature
2-6 of the State of Texas, Regular Session, 2007, by forwarding to the 2-7 archivist an official copy of this resolution.

2-8 SECTION 7. The Texas secretary of state shall also forward
2-9 official copies of this resolution to both United States senators
2-10 from Texas, to all United States representatives from Texas, to the 2-11 vice president of the United States in his capacity as presiding
2-12 officer of the United States Senate, and to the speaker of the 2-13 United States House of Representatives with the request that it be 2-14 printed in full in the Congressional Record.
