

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Memories of a life filled with joyful times and 2 meaningful accomplishments may bring comfort to the many 3 individuals who are mourning the loss of Denton civic leader L. A.
4 Nelson, Jr., who passed away on June 14, 2006, at the age of 80; and

5           WHEREAS, The son of Lucy Bernice Wilson and Luther Aldrich
6 Nelson, Sr., L. A. Nelson was born in Hugo, Oklahoma, on April 5, 7 1926; following his graduation from the local high school, he 8 served his country in the U.S. Navy during World War II; and

9           WHEREAS, This esteemed gentleman attended North Texas State 10 Teachers College, now the University of North Texas, from 1946 to 11 1948 and then transferred to the University of Oklahoma; recalled 12 to active naval duty in 1950, he served for 17 months during the 13 Korean War before returning to school; he completed a degree in 14 marketing at OU in 1952 and subsequently earned a law degree from 15 The University of Texas; and

16           WHEREAS, Mr. Nelson devoted much of his time and talents to 17 his beloved community; he served on the Denton City Council from 18 1966 to 1970, and again in 1974; in 1969, the council appointed him
19 mayor, a position he held until 1970; among his many notable 20 contributions, he supported the creation of Ray Roberts Lake, one 21 of two lakes from which the city gets its drinking water; and

22           WHEREAS, A past president of the Denton Chamber of Commerce, 23 Mr. Nelson further lent his time to serve on the Flow Memorial
24 Hospital Board of Managers; he was also a leader in his chosen

1 profession, and his peers paid tribute to his legal acumen when they
2 elected him president of the Denton County Bar Association in 1959;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, Combining his passion for sporting events at the 5 University of North Texas with his organizational talent and 6 energy, Mr. Nelson was tremendously successful in raising funds for 7 the university's athletic programs; his unflagging support was also 8 demonstrated on the sidelines on game day and at every Mean Green 9 Club meeting; and

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Nelson was a devoted family man who derived 11 great joy from spending time with his loved ones; together with his 12 wife, Martha, he was the parent of six treasured children, Nancy,
13 Michael, Susan, Marcella, Carey Currin, and the late Luther Aldrich 14 Nelson III; and

15 WHEREAS, Admired by many for his wit and wisdom, L. A. Nelson, 16 Jr., benefited countless people over the course of his lifetime as a 17 strong advocate for legal clients and friends, as well as for the 18 greater community; and

19 WHEREAS, Although he is deeply missed, Mr. Nelson's family
20 and friends may take comfort from the fact that his was truly a life
21 well lived, and his radiant spirit will continue to shine brightly 22 in the hearts of all those who were privileged to share his love and 23 friendship; now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 80th Texas
25 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of L. A. Nelson, Jr., and 26 extend sincere sympathy to the members of his family: to his wife, 27 Martha Len Nelson; to his children, Nancy Black, Michael Nelson,
