

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, A passionate advocate for social justice and civil 2 rights for the poor and disenfranchised, Cesar Chavez was a true
3 American hero, and the anniversary of his birth on March 31 provides 4 a fitting opportunity to remember and honor his many contributions; 5 and

6 WHEREAS, Born in 1927 near Yuma, Arizona, Cesar Chavez was 10
7 years old when his family lost their farm in the Great Depression 8 and became migrant farmworkers; throughout his youth and into his 9 adulthood, Mr. Chavez traveled across the Southwest, laboring in 10 the fields and vineyards and attending more than 30 different 11 schools by the time he was in the eighth grade; and

12 WHEREAS, After serving in the U.S. Navy for two years, he 13 returned home to marry Helen Fabela, whom he had met while working 14 in the vineyards of central California; settling with his wife in 15 the East San Jose barrio of Sal Si Puedes, he returned to farming to 16 support his young family; and

17 WHEREAS, Witnessing firsthand the hardships and injustices
18 of farmworker life, Mr. Chavez joined the Community Service 19 Organization, a prominent Latino civil rights group, in 1952; while 20 with the CSO, he coordinated voter registration drives and 21 conducted campaigns against racial and economic discrimination; in 22 the late 1950s and early 1960s, he served as the CSO's national 23 director; and

24 WHEREAS, Determined to create an organization that would

1 protect and serve farmworkers, he resigned from the CSO in 1962,
2 leaving the security of a regular paycheck, and moved with his wife
3 and eight children to Delano, where he founded the first successful 4 farmworkers union in American history; originally called the 5 National Farm Workers Association, the organization later became 6 known as the United Farm Workers of America; and

7 WHEREAS, For more than three decades, Mr. Chavez led this 8 groundbreaking organization by effecting change through peaceful 9 tactics such as fasts, boycotts, strikes, and pilgrimages; his 10 union's efforts influenced and inspired millions of Americans,
11 forging a diverse national coalition of students, middle-class
12 consumers, religious groups, and minorities in a hard-won struggle 13 to achieve fair wages, medical coverage, pension benefits, humane 14 living conditions, and perhaps most important, dignity and respect 15 for the hundreds of thousands of farmworkers across the country;
16 and

17 WHEREAS, In 1991, this second-generation American received
18 the Aguila Azteca award, the highest award Mexico can bestow on a 19 person of Mexican heritage, and in 1994, a year after his death on 20 April 23, 1993, his widow accepted the Presidential Medal of 21 Freedom, America's highest civilian honor, on behalf of her late 22 husband; since his death, communities across the nation have chosen 23 to pay homage to Mr. Chavez by naming schools, parks, streets, and 24 libraries, as well as scholarships and awards, in his honor; and

25 WHEREAS, His motto in life, "si se puede," or "it can be 26 done," embodies the legacy that Cesar Chavez has left for the 27 world's benefit, and his principles of equality, justice, and

1 dignity for all Americans remain as essential and as relevant today
2 as they were when he began his important life's work; now,
3 therefore, be it

4 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 80th Texas
5 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Cesar Chavez by 6 recognizing the month beginning March 31, 2008, as Cesar Chavez
7 Farmworker Appreciation Month and encourage all Texans to reflect 8 on and celebrate the extraordinary achievements of this inspiring 9 humanitarian.

Alonzo

H.R. No. 132

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.R. No. 132 was adopted by the House on February 22, 2007, by a non-record vote.

Chief Clerk of the House