6 Dozier embarked on his lifelong career in journalism at the age of 7 13, working as an apprentice to the printer and as a sports reporter
8 at a local newspaper; just two years later, he became the paper's 9 editor and the youngest person in the state's history to ever hold 10 such a position; he went on to pursue a degree in journalism and 11 graduated cum laude from Louisiana Tech University in 1943; and

12 WHEREAS, During World War II, Mr. Dozier was a communications
13 officer in the U.S. Navy and served in the Pacific on the USS
14 Murray; he later saw duty during the Korean War and was a commander 15 in the Navy Reserve; his tours of duty sparked an interest in 16 preserving the history of World War II, and he worked with the 17 Admiral Nimitz Foundation for more than 25 years, including a 18 period as its director; and

19 WHEREAS, In 1952, he became the editor of the Tyler
20 Courier-Times and Morning Telegraph; he continued to guide these 21 East Texas papers until 1965, when he and his wife, Eleanor Dozier,
22 and other investors purchased the Kerrville Daily Times; he served 23 as editor and publisher until the newspaper was sold in 1988 and 24 continued to write his column "The Hilltopper" in the years that

1 followed; Mr. and Mrs. Dozier also founded Frio-Nueces Publications
2 and Hills O' Texas Publications, which published weekly newspapers 3 in a variety of Texas towns between 1976 and 1999; and

4 WHEREAS, Respected both within the State of Texas and 5 nationally, Mr. Dozier participated in numerous professional 6 organizations, including the Texas Press Foundation, the Texas AP
7 Managing Editors Association, the American Society of Newspaper
8 Editors, and the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association; in 9 addition, he received accolades for his contributions as a
10 publisher and writer, including the George Washington Honor Medal
11 for Editorial Writing in 1963 and the 1986 Texas Daily Newspaper 12 Association Pat Taggart Award for Texas Newspaper Leader of the 13 Year; in 1991, his alma mater, Louisiana Tech, honored him with its 14 Tower Medallion Award for Service and in 1994 named him one of the 15 100 distinguished graduates of the university's first century; and

16 WHEREAS, Mr. Dozier played a strong role in supporting many 17 community organizations over the years, including the Sid Peterson
18 Memorial Hospital, the Texas State Arts & Crafts Fair, and the Tyler 19 YMCA; moreover, he was a member of the Kiwanis Club of Tyler and the 20 Riverside Nature Center, a founding director of the Kerrville 21 Performing Arts Society, and a former trustee and board member of 22 the Marvin United Methodist Church in Tyler and the Kerrville First 23 United Methodist Church; and

24 WHEREAS, A publisher and journalist of great skill and 25 insight, William Dozier had a large and positive influence on the 26 communities in which he worked, and his achievements stand as an 27 inspiring example of professional excellence; now, therefore, be it

1 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 80th Texas
2 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of William Everett
