2 the loss of community activist and former city councilman Carl Gene
3 Young, Sr., who passed away on January 10, 2007, at the age of 59; 4 and

5 WHEREAS, Born January 5, 1948, to George Alfred Young and 6 Dorothy Nell Sims Young, Mr. Young was raised in Denton; he answered 7 his country's call to duty and served in the 1st Air Cavalry during 8 the Vietnam War; and

9 WHEREAS, Returning home to face new challenges, Mr. Young 10 became an ardent and committed advocate for the residents of 11 southeast Denton; in 1995, despite a lack of political experience, 12 he won a seat on the Denton City Council; during his three terms in 13 office, he was a tireless champion for the causes he believed in,
14 including the need for affordable housing, better law enforcement, 15 and more diversity in city government; he was instrumental in the 16 creation of the Robson Ranch development and lobbied to name a 17 street after Martin Luther King, Jr.; always proud of his military 18 service, he helped to start an annual Easter egg hunt commemorating 19 16 soldiers who were killed in combat during Easter of 1968; and

20 WHEREAS, Carl Young was unfailingly forthright and honest, a 21 fiery advocate for the ordinary citizen; his was a classic American 22 story of triumph over adversity, as he rose to become a champion for 23 his community; his passionate dedication to the service of others 24 earned him the lasting respect of all who knew him; now, therefore,
