2 our nation's military personnel are being recognized on May 19,
3 2007, as Americans observe this country's 57th annual Armed Forces
4 Day; and

5 WHEREAS, Before 1950, separate days had been set aside to 6 honor the branches of the armed forces individually; the 7 establishment of a single observance followed the combining in 1947
8 of the Departments of War and Navy into one entity, the National 9 Military Establishment, which two years later became known as the 10 Department of Defense; and

11 WHEREAS, Members of the army, navy, marines, air force, and 12 coast guard are justly proud of the heroic records forged by those 13 branches and by their continuing contributions to the security of 14 American citizens at home and abroad; and

15 WHEREAS, The U.S. Army was established on June 14, 1775, when 16 the Second Continental Congress authorized the formation of 10
17 companies of riflemen; from the American Revolution to the present 18 operations in Afghanistan and Iraq, the army has furnished the 19 majority of American ground troops when the country has taken up 20 arms; today this service is composed of a number of basic branches, 21 including Infantry, Military Intelligence, Aviation, the Corps of 22 Engineers, and Special Forces, and such special branches as the 23 Army Medical Department, Chaplains, and Judge Advocate General's 24 Corps; and

1 WHEREAS, On October 13, 1775, the Second Continental Congress

4 the Revolutionary War, this service was reestablished with the 5 creation of the Department of the Navy on April 30, 1798;
6 approximately 340,500 men and women are presently serving on active 7 naval duty, ensuring the defense of the nation by sea and giving 8 seaborne support to the other military forces; and

9 WHEREAS, A month after the Continental Congress authorized 10 the procurement and dispatching of the navy's first ships, it
11 passed a resolution, on November 10, 1775, calling for the raising 12 of two marine battalions; the Marine Corps disbanded, like the 13 navy, following the War of Independence, but it was reestablished

16 and amphibious warfare and commando operations; and

17 WHEREAS, The U.S. Air Force, which became a separate branch 18 within the Department of Defense on September 18, 1947, had its 19 genesis in the 1907 creation of an aeronautical division within the 20 U.S. Army Signal Corps; military aviation subsequently achieved 21 widespread recognition during World War I, when planes proved their 22 effectiveness in reconnaissance and bombing missions, and air power
23 became a crucial factor in World War II, during which time the U.S.
24 Army Air Forces emerged as the most powerful air force in the world;
25 today's air force defends the country in the realms of air, space, 26 and cyberspace; and

5 wide-ranging wartime service has included escort and patrol duty 6 and assisting amphibious landings; and

7 WHEREAS, Together with members of the reserve forces, the 8 Army National Guard, and the Air National Guard, America's active
