

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Mixed martial arts athlete Roger Huerta of Texas has 2 overcome many hardships to achieve success in his sport and more
3 significantly in life, and his ongoing efforts to reach his goals
4 are a great testament to his determination, courage, and commitment 5 to excellence; and

6           WHEREAS, Born on May 20, 1983, in Los Angeles, Mr. Huerta
7 experienced a childhood marked by poverty, violence, and civil 8 strife, and he was ultimately abandoned by his parents before the 9 age of 13; placed in the Texas foster care system, he spent several 10 years in Pharr with the McCarthy family, and their unconditional
11 love and support provided him with his first glimpse of a brighter
12 future; later moving to Austin, he became a top wrestler at Crockett
13 High School, where he met Jo Ramirez, an English teacher, who served 14 as his advocate and guardian; still his guardian angel, Ms. Ramirez
15 today is also very proud to be his mom, having adopted Roger as her 16 son when he was 19 years old; and

17           WHEREAS, Mr. Huerta earned a wrestling scholarship to 18 Augsburg College in Minneapolis, Minnesota; while studying 19 business management, he began to practice mixed martial arts, also 20 known as "ultimate fighting," a sport that combines wrestling,
21 boxing, kickboxing, and various elements of traditional martial 22 arts; after undertaking several amateur fights, and training with 23 former Ultimate Fighting Championship middleweight champion Dave 24 Menne, he entered the professional ranks in late 2003; calling

1 himself "El Matador," Mr. Huerta holds a professional fight record
2 of 19 wins, one loss, and one draw and has won all three of his bouts
3 in the UFC's 155-pound lightweight division; he is a favorite of 4 fans, who delight at seeing him compete as a proud Latino fighter in 5 the UFC's octagon-shaped ring and who marvel at his endurance and 6 talent; and

7 WHEREAS, In spite of his tremendous success as a professional 8 mixed martial arts fighter, Mr. Huerta remained committed to 9 completing his bachelor's degree, and he graduated from Augsburg 10 College on May 5, 2007; while currently focused on his athletic 11 career, he is also working toward the release of his own clothing 12 line named "Fortitude"; and

13 WHEREAS, Drawing support from his family and his faith, Roger 14 Huerta serves as an inspiring role model for foster youth, Latino 15 youth, and undeniably all Texans, as a man who has clearly already 16 won the most significant fight of his life; now, therefore, be it

17 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 80th Texas
18 Legislature and State Representative Eddie Rodriguez hereby 19 congratulate Roger Huerta on his graduation from Augsburg College
20 and his success as a professional athlete and extend to him sincere 21 best wishes for all the good fortune he so richly deserves; and, be 22 it further

23 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 24 prepared for Mr. Huerta as an expression of high regard by the Texas
25 House of Representatives.
