

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The residents of Georgetown lost one of their most 2 beloved neighbors and admired community leaders with the passing of 3 James Lowell Shield II on September 27, 2006; and

4 WHEREAS, Raised in Dallas, Jim Shield attended W. T. White 5 High School and earned his bachelor's degree in finance from The 6 University of Texas and his master's degree from the Southwestern 7 Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University; and

8 WHEREAS, Mr. Shield became a prominent figure in the Texas
9 banking industry, and he was highly regarded for his talent in team 10 building, strategic planning, and financial analysis; his 11 leadership benefited several different institutions, and he was a 12 key figure in the founding of the Regions Bank franchise and served 13 as its president and chief executive officer since 2000; and

14 WHEREAS, A leader within the business community, Jim Shield
15 was a member of the Georgetown, Round Rock, and Greater Austin 16 Chambers of Commerce, the Real Estate Council of Austin, and the 17 Texas Bankers Association; in addition, he served as chairman of 18 the board for the Austin Chamber of the Northwest Business Council; 19 and

20 WHEREAS, For more than a decade, Jim Shield lent his time and 21 considerable expertise to the American Heart Association; at the 22 national level, he was the secretary-treasurer and chair of the 23 Budget Review Committee, and at the state level he was a board 24 member and former chair who raised a record-setting $25 million for

1 the association; moreover, he served as chair of the AHA Capital
2 Area Division board of directors and the Central Texas Heartwalk,
3 and he was a member of the Strategic Initiatives Task Force that 4 outlined the organization's role in the 21st century; he and his 5 wife, Jenni, launched a successful effort to place automated
6 external defibrillators in first-responder vehicles in Williamson
7 County, which positively impacted the safety of their fellow 8 citizens; and

9 WHEREAS, Mr. Shield served the youth of the State of Texas in 10 myriad ways; he was a member of the board of the YMCA of Greater 11 Williamson County, the Austin Metropolitan YMCA, and the Methodist
12 Children's Home of Waco, and he chaired the Partner of Youth 13 Campaign; in addition, he and his wife were instrumental in the 14 establishment of the Georgetown Circle of Friends, an organization 15 that benefits the Dell Children's Medical Center; and

16 WHEREAS, A member of the First United Methodist Church of 17 Georgetown, Mr. Shield served the congregation in a number of 18 capacities, including co-chair of the stewardship committee and 19 president of the Friendship Sunday School class, and he was a member 20 of the Holy Conversations Strategic Planning Coordinating 21 Committee, the administrative council, and the adult choir; and

22 WHEREAS, Those fortunate enough to have known Jim Shield will 23 remember a man who championed health, who exemplified integrity and 24 altruism, and who touched the lives of countless individuals with 25 his intelligence and his caring nature; although his death has 26 brought great sorrow to those who loved him, his life was an 27 inspiring example of the good that one person can accomplish; now,

1 therefore, be it

2 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 80th Texas
3 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of James Lowell Shield II 4 and offer sincere condolences to the members of his family: to his 5 wife of 16 years, Jennifer Shield; to his children, Ryan Jeffrey and 6 his wife, Holly, Callan Elizabeth, Hayley Meagan, and Jordan
7 Kathleen; to his grandson, Tristen Robert Shield; to his sister, 8 Barbara Stoneback; to his nephew, Matthew Stoneback; and to his 9 other relatives and friends; and, be it further

10 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 11 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 12 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Jim Shield.

Gattis

H.R. No. 2989

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.R. No. 2989 was adopted by the House on May 28, 2007, by a non-record vote.

Chief Clerk of the House