AN ACT

relating to the modification of an order establishing the conservatorship of a child or providing for the possession of or access to a child based on military deployment.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 156.006, Family Code, is amended by adding Subsections (c) and (d) to read as follows:

(c) Subsection (b)(2) does not apply to a conservator who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child and who has temporarily relinquished the primary care and possession of the child to another person during the conservator's military deployment.

(d) In this section, "military deployment" means military duty ordered for a period of more than six months during which the person ordered to duty:

(1) is not provided the option of being accompanied by the person's child; and

(2) is serving in a location where access to the person's child is not reasonably possible.

SECTION 2. Section 156.101, Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 156.101. GROUNDS FOR MODIFICATION OF ORDER ESTABLISHING CONSERVATORSHIP OR POSSESSION AND ACCESS. (a) The court may modify an order that provides for the appointment of a

1 conservator of a child, that provides the terms and conditions of 2 conservatorship, or that provides for the possession of or access 3 to a child if modification would be in the best interest of the 4 child and:

5 (1) the circumstances of the child, a conservator, or 6 other party affected by the order have materially and substantially 7 changed since the earlier of:

8 (A) the date of the rendition of the order; or

9 (B) the date of the signing of a mediated or 10 collaborative law settlement agreement on which the order is based;

11 (2) the child is at least 12 years of age and has filed 12 with the court, in writing, the name of the person who is the 13 child's preference to have the exclusive right to designate the 14 primary residence of the child; or

15 (3) the conservator who has the exclusive right to 16 designate the primary residence of the child has voluntarily
17 relinquished the primary care and possession of the child to 18 another person for at least six months.

19 (b) Subsection (a)(3) does not apply to a conservator who 20 has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the 21 child and who has temporarily relinquished the primary care and 22 possession of the child to another person during the conservator's
23 military deployment.

24 (c) In this section, "military deployment" means military 25 duty ordered for a period of more than six months during which the 26 person ordered to duty:

27 (1) is not provided the option of being accompanied by

1 the person's child; and

2 (2) is serving in a location where access to the
3 person's child is not reasonably possible.

4 SECTION 3. Section 156.102, Family Code, is amended by 5 adding Subsections (d) and (e) to read as follows:

6 (d) Subsection (b)(3) does not apply to a person who has the 7 exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child and 8 who has temporarily relinquished the primary care and possession of 9 the child to another person during the conservator's military 10 deployment.

11 (e) In this section, "military deployment" means military
12 duty ordered for a period of more than six months during which the 13 person ordered to duty:

14 (1) is not provided the option of being accompanied by
15 the person's child; and

16 (2) is serving in a location where access to the
17 person's child is not reasonably possible.

18 SECTION 4. Section 156.105, Family Code, is amended by 19 amending Subsection (b) and adding Subsections (c) and (d) to read 20 as follows:

21 (b) If the court determines that modification is in the best
22 interest of the child based on the military deployment of a person
23 described by Subsection (a), the court may modify the order or 24 decree to provide in a manner consistent with Section 153.3161 for 25 limited possession of the child during the period of the deployment
26 by a person designated by the deployed conservator.

27 (c) The military deployment of a conservator who has the

1 exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child and 2 who temporarily relinquishes the primary care and possession of the 3 child to another person during the conservator's deployment does 4 not by itself constitute a material and substantial change of 5 circumstances sufficient to justify a modification of an existing 6 court order or portion of a decree that sets the terms and 7 conditions for the possession of or access to the child.

8 (d) In this section, "military deployment" means military
9 duty ordered for a period of more than six months during which the 10 person ordered to duty:

11 (1) is not provided the option of being accompanied by
12 the person's child; and

13 (2) is serving in a location where access to the
14 person's child is not reasonably possible.

15 SECTION 5. The changes in law made by this Act apply to an 16 action to modify an order in a suit affecting the parent-child
17 relationship that is pending in a trial court on the effective date
18 of this Act or filed on or after that date.

19 SECTION 6. This Act takes effect September 1, 2007.
