BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 17, Business & Commerce Code, is amended by adding Subchapter J to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER J. PROTECTION FROM MISLEADING OR DECEPTIVE LIVE MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

Sec. 17.901. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

(1) "Performing musical group" means a vocal or instrumental group seeking to engage in a live musical performance.

(2) "Recording group" means a vocal or instrumental group of which one or more members:

(A) has released a sound recording under that group's name for commercial purposes; and

(B) has a legal right to use or operate under the group's name without abandoning the name or affiliation with the group.

(3) "Sound recording" means musical, spoken, or other sounds recorded on a tangible medium, including a disc, tape, or phonograph record.

Sec. 17.902. UNAUTHORIZED ADVERTISEMENT, PROMOTION, OR CONDUCTION OF CERTAIN LIVE MUSICAL PERFORMANCES. A person may not advertise, promote, or conduct a live musical performance in this

1 state through the use of a false, deceptive, or misleading
2 affiliation, connection, or association between a recording group
3 and a performing musical group. An act is not considered a violation 4 of this section if:

5 (1) the performing musical group is the authorized
6 registrant and owner of a federal service mark for the recording
7 group that is registered in the United States Patent and Trademark
8 Office;

9 (2) at least one member of the performing musical
10 group is or was a member of the recording group and that member has a 11 legal right to use or operate under the name of the recording group
12 without abandoning the name or affiliation with the recording
13 group;

14 (3) the live musical performance is identified in all
15 advertisements or other promotions for the event as being conducted 16 as a "salute" or "tribute" to the recording group;

17 (4) the advertisement or promotion relates to a live 18 musical performance that is to take place outside of this state; or

19 (5) the live musical performance is expressly 20 authorized by each member of the recording group.

21 Sec. 17.903. INJUNCTION; RESTITUTION. (a) If the attorney 22 general has reason to believe that a person is engaging in, has 23 engaged in, or is about to engage in an act or practice that 24 violates Section 17.902, and that proceedings would be in the 25 public interest, the attorney general may bring an action in the 26 name of the state against the person to restrain that act or 27 practice by temporary or permanent injunction.

1       (b) A district attorney, with prior written notice to the 2 attorney general, may institute and prosecute an action seeking 3 injunctive relief under this section. The district attorney shall 4 make a full report to the attorney general regarding any action
5 prosecuted by the district attorney under this subsection. The 6 report must include a statement regarding the final disposition of 7 the matter.

8       (c) When a court issues a permanent injunction to restrain 9 and prevent a violation of Section 17.902, the court may make 10 additional orders or judgments as necessary to restore money or 11 other property that may have been acquired because of a violation of 12 this subchapter.

13       Sec. 17.904. CIVIL PENALTY. (a) A person who violates 14 Section 17.902 is liable to the state for a civil penalty of not 15 less than $5,000 or more than $15,000 for each violation. Each 16 performance that violates Section 17.902 constitutes a separate 17 violation.

18       (b) The attorney general or the prosecuting attorney in the 19 county in which a violation occurs may bring suit to recover the 20 civil penalty imposed under Subsection (a).

21       (c) The civil penalty provided by this section is in 22 addition to injunctive relief or any other remedy that may be 23 granted under Section 17.903.

24       SECTION 2. This Act takes effect September 1, 2007.
