3 terrorist attacks that began on September 11, 2001; or

4 (G) any future national emergency declared in5 accordance with federal law.

6 (e) The exemptions [exemption from fees] provided for by 7 this section do [in Subsection (a) of this section does] not apply to a person who, [if] at the time of [his] registration, [he] is 8 9 eligible for educational benefits under federal law [legislation in 10 effect at the time of his registration] if the value of those 11 benefits is equal to or exceeds the value of the exemption. If the value of the federal benefits does not equal or exceed the value of 12 13 the exemption, [except that] the person must first utilize the federal benefit, [for which he is eligible] and the combined amount 14 15 of the federal benefit plus the amount of the exemption may [this waiver shall] not exceed the maximum value of the exemption 16 [waiver]. A person is covered by the exemptions if the person's 17 [his] right to benefits under federal law [legislation] is 18 extinguished at the time of [his] registration, except that a 19 person is not eligible for an exemption from fees under this section 20 if the person's right to benefits under federal law [legislation] 21 22 is extinguished because the person is in default of repayment of a loan made to the person under a federal program to provide or 23 guarantee loans for educational purposes. A person is not eligible 24 25 for an [the] exemption under this section if the person is in default on a loan made or guaranteed for educational purposes by the 26 27 State of Texas.

(g) The governing board of a junior college district may 1 2 establish a fee for extraordinary costs associated with a specific 3 course or program and may provide that the exemptions provided by this section [Subsections (a) and (b)] do not apply to this fee. 4 5 (k) The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board by rule 6 shall prescribe procedures to allow a person who becomes eligible 7 for an exemption provided by Subsection (a) and has used all the person's federal benefits as required by Subsection (e) to waive 8 9 the person's right to any unused portion of the maximum number of cumulative credit hours for which the person could receive the 10 exemption and assign the exemption for the unused portion of those 11 credit hours to one of the person's children. The procedures shall 12 13 provide: (1) the manner in which a person may waive the 14 15 exemption and designate a child to receive the exemption; 16 (2) a procedure permitting the person to designate a 17 different child to receive the exemption if the child previously 18 designated to receive the exemption did not use the exemption under this section for all of the assigned portion of credit hours; and 19 20 (3) a method of documentation to enable institutions of higher education to determine the eligibility of the designated 21 22 person to receive the exemption. (1) To be eligible to receive an exemption under Subsection 23 24 (k), a person must: 25 (1) be a student who is classified as a resident under Subchapter B when the person enrolls in an institution of higher 26 27 education;

1	(2) make satisfactory academic progress toward a
2	degree or certificate as determined by the institution at which the
3	person is enrolled in accordance with the policy of the
4	institution's financial aid department, except that the
5	institution may not require the person to enroll in a minimum course
6	load; and
7	(3) be 25 years of age or younger on the first day of
8	the semester or other academic term for which the exemption is
9	claimed, except that the coordinating board by rule shall prescribe
10	procedures by which a person who suffered from a severe illness or
11	other debilitating condition that affected the person's ability to
12	use the exemption before reaching that age may be granted
13	additional time to use the exemption corresponding to the time the
14	person was unable to use the exemption because of the illness or 15	condition.

SECTION 3. (a) Section 54.203, Education Code, as amended by this Act, applies beginning with tuition and other fees charged for the 2008 spring semester. Tuition and other fees charged for an academic period before the 2008 spring semester are covered by the law in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(b) The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board shall prescribe the procedures required by Subsections (k) and (l), Section 54.203, Education Code, as added by this Act, as soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act. For that purpose, the coordinating board may adopt the initial rules prescribing those procedures in the manner provided by law for emergency rules.

1 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2007.
