Sec. 4A. If an application for a writ of habeas corpus is 9 filed in a cause in which the applicant previously sought review on direct appeal of a determination made under Section 5(b), Article 42.12, the Court of Criminal Appeals shall direct that the cause be docketed and heard under Section 5 if review of the cause on direct appeal was denied by the appellate court on the grounds that the court lacked jurisdiction. 15

> Except as provided by Section 4A, the [The] Court of Sec. 5. Criminal Appeals may deny relief upon the findings and conclusions of the hearing judge without docketing the cause, or may direct that the cause be docketed and heard as though originally presented to said court or as an appeal. Upon reviewing the record the court shall enter its judgment remanding the applicant to custody or ordering his release, as the law and facts may justify. The mandate of the court shall issue to the court issuing the writ, as in other criminal cases. After conviction the procedure outlined in this

- 1 Act shall be exclusive and any other proceeding shall be void and of
- 2 no force and effect in discharging the prisoner.

3 SECTION 2. Subsection (b), Section 5, Article 42.12, Code

On violation of a condition of community supervision

- 4 of Criminal Procedure, is amended to read as follows:
- 6 imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be 7 arrested and detained as provided in Section 21 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to the determination 8 9 by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. This determination is reviewable in the same 10 manner as a revocation hearing conducted under Section 21 in a case 11 in which an adjudication of guilt had not been deferred [No appeal 12 13 may be taken from this determination]. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, 14 15 pronouncement of sentence, granting of community supervision, and 16 defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred. A court assessing punishment after an adjudication 17 of guilt of a defendant charged with a state jail felony may suspend 18
  - SECTION 3. (a) Article 11.07, Code of Criminal Procedure, as amended by this Act, applies only to an application for a writ of habeas corpus that is filed on or after the effective date of this Act. An application for a writ of habeas corpus that is filed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect at the time the application was filed, and the former law is the imposition of the sentence and place the defendant on community supervision or may order the sentence to be executed, regardless of whether the defendant has previously been convicted of a felony.
