AN ACT

relating to information provided to a plaintiff in a small claims court by a defendant against whom judgment is rendered.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 28.051(b), Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) If the judgment is against the defendant, the defendant shall pay the judgment immediately. A judgment entered against a defendant must require that if the defendant does not pay the judgment immediately, the defendant must provide the plaintiff with the defendant's:

(1) street address and mailing address, if different;

(2) driver's license number or state identification number; and

(3) employer's name and address.

SECTION 2. Section 28.051(b), Government Code, as amended by this Act, applies only to a judgment rendered against a defendant on or after the effective date of this Act. A judgment rendered before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law applicable immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2007.
