S.C.R. No. 79

1 SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The Texas Legislative Medal of Honor was established
3 to honor gallant and intrepid service by a member of the state
4 military forces of Texas, and through his courageous actions in 5 Vietnam, Sergeant Alfredo "Freddy" Gonzalez distinguished himself 6 as a worthy recipient of this prestigious honor; and

7 WHEREAS, Born May 23, 1946, in Edinburg and a graduate of 8 Edinburg High School, Sergeant Gonzalez enlisted in the United 9 States Marine Corps in May 1965; after his first tour of duty in 10 Vietnam, he was chosen to train new marines for guerilla warfare; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, A few months later, Sergeant Gonzalez learned of an 13 ambush in which men who had served under him had been killed; 14 impelled by a strong sense of duty to his fellow marines and to his 15 country, he volunteered for a second tour in Vietnam; and

16 WHEREAS, When, at the end of January 1968, North Vietnamese
17 and Viet Cong troops launched the massive Tet Offensive, Sergeant
18 Gonzalez and his platoon were ordered to Hue to relieve the pressure
19 on that city; en route to Hue, the platoon's convoy was hit by heavy
20 fire on several occasions; during one such encounter, Sergeant
21 Gonzalez saw an injured marine lying in the road ahead and ran 22 through enemy fire to carry the man to cover, receiving 23 fragmentation wounds in the rescue; and

24 WHEREAS, With the column halted by withering fire from a

1 fortified machine-gun bunker, Sergeant Gonzalez proceeded to guide
2 his men to a protective dike; he then moved out onto a road being 3 raked by the gun and destroyed the bunker with hand grenades; later, 4 on February 3, Sergeant Gonzalez was seriously wounded but 5 continued to refuse medical treatment and to lead his men in their 6 attack; and

7         WHEREAS, During fighting in Hue on February 4, his platoon of 8 some 35 troops was again pinned down by a ferocious barrage; telling 9 his unit to stay behind shelter, Sergeant Gonzalez moved forward
10 aggressively with hand grenades and small antitank rockets, firing 11 numerous rounds against enemy emplacements; and

12         WHEREAS, Entering a church, where the North Vietnamese were 13 heavily fortified, he succeeded in suppressing virtually all of 14 their fire; before the last of it could be silenced, however, he was 15 mortally wounded; and

16         WHEREAS, Because he succeeded in destroying so many North
17 Vietnamese positions, Sergeant Gonzalez was credited with saving 18 the lives of the men in his platoon; the following year, in 19 consequence of his extraordinary and selfless action, he was 20 posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor, becoming the only marine 21 in combat during the Tet Offensive to receive that award; and

22         WHEREAS, For those with whom he served, the heroism displayed 23 by Sergeant Gonzalez was completely in character; "it seemed like 24 he was everywhere all the time," one remembered; "he was always 25 there in the front, never in the back . . . he was always there for 26 us"; and

27         WHEREAS, Among the awards subsequently conferred on Sergeant

1 Gonzalez were three Purple Hearts, four Presidential Unit
2 Citations, and a Combat Action Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal, National 3 Defense Medal, and Cold War Certificate; in addition, he was the 4 posthumous recipient of two South Vietnamese decorations--the 5 Vietnam Cross of Gallantry with gold palm and star and the Vietnam
6 Service Medal with four bronze stars; in 1996, the United States
7 Navy commissioned a new guided missile-destroyer in his honor; and

8 WHEREAS, Through his unhesitating selflessness and his 9 unfaltering devotion to duty, honor, and his country, Sergeant
10 Alfredo Gonzalez embodied the highest ideals of the armed service, 11 and he most assuredly merits the award of this state's supreme 12 military medal; now, therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas
14 hereby posthumously confer the Texas Legislative Medal of Honor on 15 Sergeant Alfredo "Freddy" Gonzalez in recognition of his heroic 16 service and express to his family its deepest appreciation on 17 behalf of all his fellow Texans; and, be it further

18 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 19 prepared for the family of Sergeant Gonzalez as an expression of 20 highest regard by the Texas House of Representatives and Senate.
