

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds for maintenance, improvement, repair, and construction projects and for the purchase of needed equipment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article III, Texas Constitution, is amended by adding Section 50-g to read as follows:

Sec. 50-g. (a) The legislature by general law may authorize the Texas Public Finance Authority to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed $1 billion and to enter into related credit agreements. The bonds shall be executed in the form, on the terms, and in the denominations, bear interest, and be issued in installments as prescribed by the Texas Public Finance Authority.

(b) Proceeds from the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in a separate fund or account within the state treasury created by the comptroller of public accounts for this purpose. Money in the separate fund or account may be used only to pay for:

(1) maintenance, improvement, repair, or construction projects authorized by the legislature by general law or the General Appropriations Act and administered by or on behalf of the Texas Building and Procurement Commission, the Parks and Wildlife Department, the adjutant general's department, the Department of State Health Services, the Department of Aging and Disability Services, the Texas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired, the

1 Texas Youth Commission, the Texas Historical Commission, the Texas
2 Department of Criminal Justice, the Texas School for the Deaf, or 3 the Department of Public Safety of the State of Texas; or 4 (2) the purchase, as authorized by the legislature by 5 general law or the General Appropriations Act, of needed equipment

6 by or on behalf of a state agency listed in Subdivision (1) of this 7 subsection.

8 (c) The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by 9 bonds issued under this section may be set by general law.

10 (d) While any of the bonds or interest on the bonds 11 authorized by this section is outstanding and unpaid, from the 12 first money coming into the state treasury in each fiscal year not 13 otherwise appropriated by this constitution, an amount sufficient 14 to pay the principal and interest on bonds that mature or become due 15 during the fiscal year and to make payments that become due under a 16 related credit agreement during the fiscal year is appropriated, 17 less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the previous 18 fiscal year.

19 (e) Bonds issued under this section, after approval by the 20 attorney general, registration by the comptroller of public 21 accounts, and delivery to the purchasers, are incontestable and are 22 general obligations of the State of Texas under this constitution.

23 SECTION 2. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be 24 submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 6, 2007.
25 The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the 26 proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the 27 issuance of up to $1 billion in bonds payable from the general
