

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 367

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize Jonathon A. Vogt of San Antonio, who was recently named a 2007 Texas Youth of the Year finalist by the Boys and Girls Clubs of America; and

WHEREAS, Boys and Girls Clubs are neighborhood-based programs that address today's most pressing issues for young people; the clubs promote improved self-image for members and encourage community involvement, strong moral values, and improved life management skills; and

WHEREAS, Jonathon has been a member of the Boys and Girls Clubs of San Antonio for four years; he has held various offices in the Keystone Club, and he assisted in planning and implementing many community service projects, including graffiti and beach cleanups, mentoring youth, clothing drives, and feeding the homeless; and

WHEREAS, He is a senior at Southwest High School in Atascosa and is active in the Southwest Criminal Justice Club, the student council, and debate and speech teams; he runs track and is a mentor to younger students; he ranks in the top ten percent of his class and will attend Texas Tech University; and

WHEREAS, Jonathon's selection as a Texas Youth of the Year finalist is a tribute to his exceptional talents and his enthusiasm for service; he is an exemplary young man, and he demonstrates the fine spirit shown by many young people in the State of Texas who volunteer to improve their communities; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 80th Legislature, hereby commend Jonathon A. Vogt for being a 2007 Texas Youth of the Year finalist and extend to him best wishes for success in the future; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for him as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.
