

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

February 9, 2007

TO: Honorable Bill Callegari, Chair, House Committee on Government Reform

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB67 by Leibowitz (Relating to energy-saving devices and options for vending machines in buildings owned or leased by the state; imposing an administrative fine.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require energy-saving devices to be installed on certain vending machines located in buildings owned or leased by the state. The amount of utility savings would be minimal and no significant revenue is expected to be generated through the imposition of the administrative fee.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
