

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

February 26, 2007

TO: Honorable Aaron Pena, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB284 by Driver (Relating to the use of force or deadly force in defense of a person.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code by further defining the conditions under which a person is justified in using force against another. The bill would also amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to civil actions and the recovery of court costs.

The Office of Court Administration has determined that the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant fiscal impact to the State.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
