Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

February 28, 2007

TO: Honorable Fred Hill, Chair, House Committee on Local Government Ways & Means

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB402 by Hill (Relating to a criminal violation of the open meetings law committed by a member of an appraisal district board of directors and to a prohibition on certain communications between the chief executive officer or a member of the governing body of a taxing unit and a chief appraiser or a member of an appraisal district board of directors; providing penalties.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Section 551 of the Government Code to create new misdemeanor offenses for violations of the open meetings law by any member of an appraisal district board of directors.

Offenses would be punishable by a fine and/or confinement in county jail. The bill would set the minimum fine of $500 and a maximum fine of $1,000 for violations and would limit jail confinement to a minimum of two months and a maximum of one year.

The bill would amend Section 6 of the Tax Code to create a new Class C misdemeanor offense for ex parte communications between a chief executive officer or governing board members of taxing units and the chief appraiser or board of directors of an appraisal district outside of an open meeting.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2007. It would apply only to offenses committed on or after that date.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
