Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 11, 2007

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB814 by Dutton (Relating to the payment of child support obligations on behalf of persons wrongfully imprisoned.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require the State to pay for current child support that accrues while a wrongfully imprisoned obligor is in prison, plus any interest accruals during the period of imprisonment. The Comptroller of Public Accounts indicates there would be no administrative costs for the agency; however, a cost to General Revenue may result for additional payments resulting from wrongful imprisonment estimated to be approximately $589,000 for the first biennium and $229,000 for the next biennium.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
