FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 5, 2007

TO: Honorable Rob Eissler, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB847 by Olivo (Relating to evaluation of disciplinary alternative education programs and reporting regarding the academic performance of students placed in those programs.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

While the bill would increase annual reporting requirements, the Texas Education Agency currently collects most if not all of the necessary data. Personnel costs involved in processing the data and adding them to the annual report are not expected to impose a significant fiscal burden on the agency.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
