IN RE: HB902 by Crownover (Relating to a student fitness and recreational fee at Texas Woman's University.), As Passed 2nd House

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Under provisions of the bill, Texas Woman's University may impose a student fitness and recreational fee in an amount not to exceed $125 for each regular semester or each summer session of more than six weeks or $62.50 for each summer session or six weeks or less. The fee could not be imposed unless approved by a majority vote of the students. The university predicts that the fee will generate approximately $2.1 million per year.
