Fiscal Analysis

The bill would make minor amendments the Government Code relating to the operations of the Task Force on Indigent Defense, for which no fiscal implication to the State is anticipated. The bill would amend Government Code § 81.054(j) to continue the collection of a $65 legal services fee paid by Texas attorneys each year as part of bar dues by striking the expiration clause for this subsection. The fee would otherwise expire on September 1, 2007. Half the fees collected go to the Fair Defense Account for use by the Task Force on Indigent Defense while the other half goes to the Judicial Fund to support civil legal services for the indigent.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2007.

Methodology

Estimates for the continuation of this fee are based on the FY 2007 estimates for the legal services fee included in the Comptroller's 2008-09 Biennial Revenue Estimate.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
