

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 21, 2007

TO: Honorable Kevin Bailey, Chair, House Committee on Urban Affairs

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1368 by Hochberg (Relating to maintaining or participating in a public nuisance.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code to authorize the district, county, or city attorney or the attorney general, to take actions if, after notice and hearing on a request by a petitioner for a temporary injunction regarding a public nuisance, a court determines that there has been a violation of an injunctive order. Under current statute, the political subdivision is the entity authorized to take the actions outlined in statute.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
