

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 23, 2007

TO: Honorable Rob Eissler, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1844 by Howard, Charlie (Relating to the administration of certain tests to home-schooled students by school districts.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

School districts without a website would incur newspaper publication costs to maintain compliance with the bill. However, it is assumed that the overwhelming majority of districts would comply by posting reports on the district Internet website as authorized by the bill. Since more than 1,000 school districts currently have websites, fiscal implications are not expected to be significant on a statewide basis.
