Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 22, 2007

TO: Honorable Geanie Morrison, Chair, House Committee on Higher Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1878 by Olivo (Relating to longevity pay for certain campus peace officers employed by a state institution of higher education or public technical institute.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated. However, affected institutions of higher education would need to absorb the cost of funding the longevity pay provided by this bill. The magnitude of this by-institution cost would depend on a combination of each institution's number of commissioned peace officers and the time-on-job tenure of those commissioned peace officers.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
