

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 26, 2007

TO: Honorable Helen Giddings, Chair, House Committee on Business & Industry

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2623 by Kuempel (Relating to the cancellation of a dating service contract within a certain period after execution of the contract.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend statute and provide a person may cancel a dating service contract and receive a full refund by sending written notice not later than the third business day after the contract date. The Office of the Attorney General indicates that new complaints and investigations may arise as a result of complaints to the Consumer Protection and Public Health Division within the agency; however, it is anticipated that any additional costs can be absorbed within current resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
