

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 11, 2007

TO: Honorable Robert Duncan, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2912 by Aycock (Relating to requiring an election authority to provide notice to certain county chairs regarding certain election activities.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Election Code to require each election authority, at least four days in advance, to deliver written notice of the time and place of any meeting called by the election authority to the county chair of each political party that made nominations by primary election for the general election for state and county officers.

The bill would take effect immediately if it were to receive the required two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, it would take effect September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
