

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 11, 2007

TO: Honorable Rob Eissler, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3409 by Thompson (Relating to staff development training for certain public school personnel regarding student disciplinary procedures.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require principals or other administrators who oversee student discipline to attend staff development training in discipline management techniques.

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) indicates that the required training could be provided using current agency resources in coordination with Regional Education Service Centers and through the use of the Texas Education Television Network (TETN).

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
