

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 4, 2007

TO: Honorable Aaron Pena, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB167 by Ellis (Relating to the administrative procedure for compensation for wrongful imprisonment.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 103 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to the administrative procedure for compensation for wrongful imprisonment. The bill would remove the requirement that a claimant must file a certification of the person's actual innocence signed by a prosecuting attorney of the county in which the sentence was rendered. To the extent that the bill would lessen administrative costs of processing compensations for wrongful imprisonment, a significant fiscal implication to the State is not anticipated.

The bill would apply only to claims filed on or after the effective date of the bill. The bill would take effect September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
