

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 19, 2007

TO: Honorable Jeff Wentworth, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB505 by Uresti (Relating to access to criminal history record information by the Guardianship Certification Board.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code relating to access to criminal history records information by the Guardianship Certification Board. The bill would authorize the board to obtain criminal history information maintained by the Department of Public Safety relating to applicants or active guardians, provided the board destroys the information after it is used for authorized purposes. To the extent the bill would modify procedures relating to criminal history records for guardians or applicants to be guardians, no significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would take immediate effect if the bill receives two-thirds the vote of members; otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
