May 3, 2007

TO: Honorable Jane Nelson, Chair, Senate Committee on Health & Human Services

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1095 by Uresti (Relating to a study on increasing the number of medical residency programs, medical residents, and physicians practicing medical specialties in this state.),
Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Occupations Code relating to a study on increasing the number of medical residency programs, medical residents, and physicians practicing medical specialties in this state. Based on the analysis of the Texas Medical Board, Office of the Governor and The University of Texas System Administration, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

This bill would take effect September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
